Dixon-Yates Contract Hit By Kefauver

Charges Adams With Violation Of Criminal Code

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10—UP—Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) charged Friday that Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams and other high administration officials "violated the criminal code" in their handling of the Dixon-Yates case.

Kefauver, who directed a Senate Judiciary subcommittee investigation of the case, accused Adams of using "his high office to try to prevent public disclosure of wrongdoing."

He accused Chairman Lewis L. Strauss of the Atomic Energy Commission, former Budget Director Rowland R. Hughes, and Chairman J. Sinclair Armstrong of the Securities & Exchange Commission of conspiring with Adams to "conceal the facts" in the case.

He called on Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr. to present the matter of a grand jury "without further delay."

The Tennessee senator made the charges in a statement accompanying release of a subcommittee staff report on the Dixon-Yate investigation. He told newsmen he is sending copies of his statement to the Justice Department and comptroller general and will place it in the Congresional Record.

White House and Justice Department spokesman said they had not seen the report and had no comment. Other officials named by Kefauver either declined immediate comment or could not be reached.

The staff report charged that "every concept of decent government and fair and impartial administration of applicable law was ignored" in negotiating the now-cancelled contract.

The contract called for the Dixon-Yates utility group to build a power plant at West Memphis, Ark., to supply power to the AEI.

The contract called for the Dixon-Yates utility group to build a power plant at West Memphis, Ark., to supply power to the AEI.

The Justice Department now contends that the contract is void because of a "conflict of interest." It referred to Adolph H. Wenzell, who served both as budget bureau consultant in the affair and as an officer of the First Boston Corp., which acted as financial agent for Dixon-Yates.

Kefauver said there is "substantial evidence indicating that Mr. Adams, Mr. Hughes and Mr. Strauss deliberately attempted to

Elector To Resign If Adlai Attains Demo Nomination

CANTON, Miss., Aug. 10 (AP) — One of Mississippi's presidential electors today vowed he would resign rather than vote for Adlai Stevenson if the former Illinois governor received the Democratic party nomination.

State Sen. Earl Evans of Canton, president pro tempore and one of Mississippi's eight Democratic party presidential electors, said:

"I will resign if Stevenson is nominated. He is not friendly to the South. He always has favored a strong civil rights program and integration of the races."

None of the three other electors contacted would comment or commit himself.

Under state law, the Democratic State Executive Committee may replace resigned electors.

Goy. J. P. Coleman, who has hailed Stevenson as "the best friend the South has among potential nominees," said the state's electors have agreed to resign if they cannot support the party's nominees.

This would give the executive committee a chance to appoint electors who would follow party lines.

Evans personally favors Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo), Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex), Harry Byrd of Virginia or "any one of a number of great men" of the South.

The Canton attorney suggested two slates of electors—one pledged to the Democratic party's nominee and the other pledged to an un-named states rights candidate—as a means of helping throw the election into the U.S. House of Representatives where each state has one vote.

INSURE YOUR FUTURE PROTECT OUR FORESTS

Demos Hear Plea For Civil Rights; South's Warning

CHICAGO, Aug. 10 (AP)—Democratic platform drafters, trying to hold steam below the blowoff point heard demands today for adoption of a strong civil rights plank and a Dixie warning this would cost the party the election.

The strategy through hours of hearings all was aimed at stopping any big North-South civil rights row before it could start. For today, it worked.

Tomorrow could be different. Gov. George Bell Timmerman, Jr. of South Carolina will be back then for more testimony and questioning by a Negro member of the Platform Committee, Belford V. Lawson of Washington, D.C.

It was Timmerman who warned today of a Dixie bolt and loss of the election to the GOP if the Democrats insist on backing at next week's National Convention the Supreme Court's decision barring segregation in public schools.

The governor, a leader in marshalling Southern opposition to the court decision, took the witness chair after the Platform Committee had heard insistent demands by Northern lawmakers, labor union leaders and others urging a strong civil rights stand. He said:

"A profederal civil rights plank infringing upon the constitutional rights of the states and their people, a prointegration plank, or any approval of the school desegregation decision will insure a Democratic defeat in November.

"It would be an outright endorsement of the Republican administration."

Timmerman reminded the committee that four normally Democratic states, Virginia, Florida, Texas, and Tennessee, had voted Republican four years ago while "eight Democratic Southern states remained loyal to the party at the ballot box." He added: "If the party repudiates them now, they may repudiate the party."

"I do not see," Timmerman said, "how the national Democratic party can expect to win in November without the Southern states."

Cooling-off efforts in the platform committee were led by Southern members. They refrained from firing at Northern

Pressure On Nixon For '54 Actions

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10—UP—Harold E. Stassen said Friday Vice President Richard M. Nixon's "extreme campaigning" in 1954 and labor opposition to Nixon sparked his drive to switch to Gov. Christian A. Horter as President Eisenhower's 1956 running-mate.

Stassen, in his first implied personal attack on the vice president, said he had received reports that Nixon's campaign tactics cost GOP votes in the 1954 congressional election, and even contributed to the loss of a Senate seat—that of former Sen. Guy Cordon (R-Ore.).

He said he was told by Repub-

Gov. Coleman To Give Answer To NAACP's 'Attack'

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 10 (AP) — Gov. J. P. Coleman said today an official of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People attacked Mississippi during a meeting of the Democratic party's platform committee in Chicago.

Coleman, who issued the statement through his Jackson office, said Roy Wilkins, NAACP secretary, "made an attack upon the state of Mississippi in his appearance before the platform committee.

"On Saturday, I will make a full and complete answer to the statement of Wilkins."

Coleman did not specify the nature of the attack.

Four Missing As Oil Rig Capsizes In Mississippi

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 10 (AP)—An offshore oil drilling rig capsized in the Mississippi River today and officials listed four men as missing. Five others were injured.

The barge rolled over near the docks of Avondale Marine Ways, Inc., which had built it for Southeastern Drilling Co. of Dallas, Tex., and the California Co.

Divers, workmen, police and fire department officials convered on the scene in an effort to determine whether any of the missing may be trapped in the barge.

Efforts were made to attach pontoons to the hull to keep it afloat. Air was pumped into the barge in an effort to raise it high enough for a diver to get into the interior. Floodlights lit the area.

By 9:30 p.m. air pumped into the barge had raised it about two feet and workmen settled down to maintaining air hoses through the

Truman Will Point To His Choice Today

Demo Contenders Jockeyed For Position Friday

CHICAGO, Aug. 10—UP—Adlai E. Stevenson and Gov. Averell Harriman battled Friday for the powerful support of former President Harry S. Truman in their bids to capture the Democratic presidential nomination next week.

Mr. Truman, who plans to reveal his choice for the party's top honor at 3:30 p. m., cdt., Saturday, conferred separately with Stevenson and Harriman in his hotel suite. Both came away openly optimistic but with no concrete promises.

At this point a Truman endorsement of Stevenson obviously would assure the 1952 contender another round in November with President Eisenhower, who gave him a sound trouncing last time around.

If the former President goes for Harriman — as the New Yorker's backers hope — it will mean a bitter convention struggle and could

Hurricane Has Winds Of 120 MPH

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 10 (AP)—The first hurricane of the year developed in the Atlantic today and hurricane warnings were posted in most of the Windward and Leeward islands.

Hurricane Betsy packed winds of 120 miles an hour near its center. Gales extended north 125 miles and south 65 miles. Some further increase in intensity is expected.

At 5 p.m. EST it was 640 miles east southeast of San Juan, Puerto Rico, and was moving west northwest at 17 miles an hour.

When found this morning, Betsy had reported winds of 70 miles an hour. A hurricane hunter plane, however, flew into the area and found the winds.

The San Juan Weather Bureau put up the storm warnings—which mean the hurricane is 24 hours or less away—from the island of St. Lucia north to Antigua. Northeast storm warnings went up from St. Kitts to Anguila and northwest storm warnings from Grenada and Barbados to a point just south of St. Lucia.

The hurricane is expected to move on a line south of the north-

Louisiana Oil Allowable For September Cut

BATON ROUGE, Aug. 10 (AP) — Conservation Commissioner John B. Hussey today announced a 12,000 barrel per day net cut in the Louisiana oil allowable for September.

Hussey explained the cut would be made entirely in offshore production, with inshore wells receiving a small increase in the depth bracket formula which controls individual well production.

The inshore production allowable will be upped one per cent over August to 40 per cent of the depth bracket in effect in March, 1953.

Hussey added, "as an emergency measure and for the month of September, the offshore wells will receive allowables on a depth bracket formula based on one and one-half times the inshore depth bracket mentioned above.

"This will result in a gross reduction of approximately 20,000 barrels per day for September and taking into account an estimated 8,000 barrels per day of new production during the months will result in an estimated net reduction in allowables of approximately 12,000 barrels per day."

This 12,000 barrels net cut is a reduction of slightly over 10 per cent from August daily allowables for offshore wells.

Hussey continued, "national stock of crude and products are at a level which requires some reduction for September and since no allowable reduction was made in August, compared with July, it is felt that the reduction in amounts listed above for September is not only justified but necessary."

And he stressed, "this reduction in offshore allowables is temporary in nature and is subject to change after a complete study which is now under way by the department of conservation."

The study seeks to determine if a change in the method of allocating market demand for inshore and offshore wells should be made.

Wade Martin, Sr. Dies Of Heart Attack At 72

ST MARTINVILLE, La., Aug. 10 (AP)—Wade O. Martin Sr., 72, Chairman of the Louisiana Public Service Commission, died today after a heart attack.

Martin, father of the Louisiana secretary of state, complained of indigestion and was hospitalized yesterday.

His death ended a political career that began in 1912 when he was elected sheriff of St. Martin Parish.

He and his son recently were engaged in a hassle with Gov. Earl Long, who stripped the younger Martin of some of his duties and endorsed Ernest Clements as Democratic nominee for the Public Service Commission.

Madtin reportedly was considering running as an independent against Clements in the November general election. But Rep. Edwin Willis (D-La), a lifelong friend, said Martin had confided to him

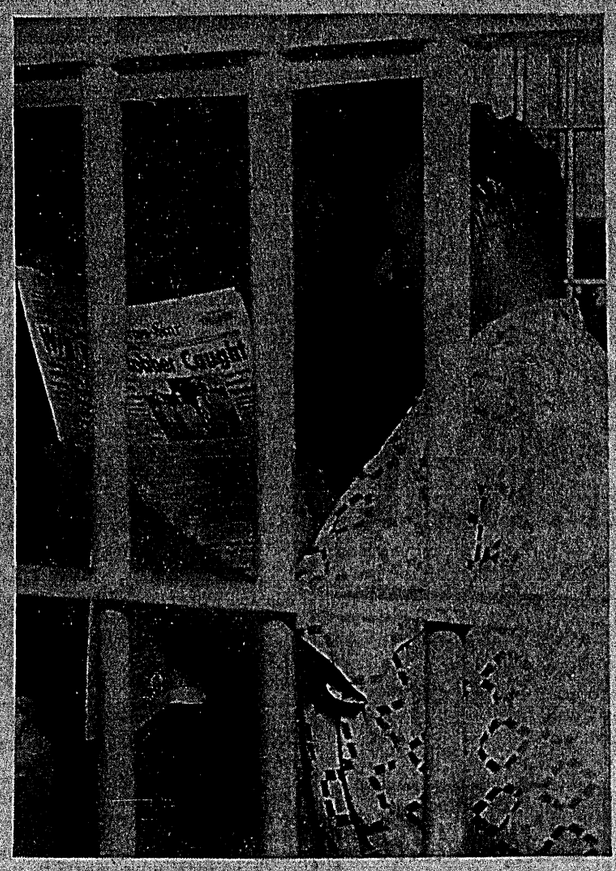
W. M. Bank Robber High On FBI List



BANK ROBBER BEHIND BARS—Reading a newspaper account of West Monroe's First National Bank robbery yesterday is Sigmund Weil who bank officials identified as the armed bandit who held them at gun point and took $9,518. Weil was arrested at a West Monroe tourist court less than two hours after the robbery. The F.B.I. identified Weil as one of its ten most wanted criminals. He escaped from prison last month and was wanted for a bank robbery in New Orleans. (Staff photo by John Oldenburg)

$9,518 Taken In Holdup Is Found Intact

Sigmund Weil, 48, Is Escapee From Federal Prison

Sigmund Weil, 48-year-old escapee from the federal penitentiary and accused robber of a New Orleans bank last month, was jailed here yesterday less than two hours after a bold, methodic holdup at the First National Bank of West Monroe. Weil was identified as one of the top ten most wanted men listed by the F.B.I.

The entire amount of the $9,518 taken from the West Monroe bank was recovered.

The West Monroe bank robbery, the first in the history of the Twin Cities, triggered one of the most extensive manhunts ever launched in Ouachita parish.

Within a few minutes after the robbery alarm went out Sheriff Bailey Grant, of Ouachita parish, had erected road blocks on all main arteries leading out of the parish and secured the cooperation of authorities in surrounding parishes in further expanding a system of road blocks.

"Some might think Weil was dumb by staying in town," Grant said. "We think he played it smart by not leaving town. He had his best chance of eluding authorities that way. If he had tried to get out of town our road blocks would certainly have caught him," Grant said.

A routine check at a West Monroe tourist court paid off. Assistant West Monroe Police Chief Jimmy Cullipher, Deputy Sheriff Bill Causey and Police Capt. Jake Hennen made the arrest.

Weil was taken into custody shortly before 11 a.m. The bank robbery was timed at 9:15, fifteen minutes after the bank opened for the days business.

Carl White, a vice president at the bank, said Weil entered the bank a few minutes after it opened and launched his approach.

"Are you an officer of the bank?" White said Weil asked him.

"Yes," White replied. "What can I do for you?"

"I want to talk to you about opening an account, uh, I mean I want to rent a safety deposit box," White quoted Weil as saying.

"I realized then he didn't act exactly right," White said.

White said he asked the man what type safety deposit box he wanted and Weil said he wanted a large one. 'I told him we were rented out on the larger boxes, and offered him a smaller one."

The man told the bank official "I think I'll look and see if I can

Neville Sizzler Staff Holds Meet

Two important meetings of the Neville Sizzler newspaper staff took place Thursday and yesterday afternoon in the Neville building for the purpose of acquainting the staff with the general procedure of good newspaper writing.

Approximately ten prospective journalist were on hand at the Friday gathering to take notes on an hour lecture on the mechanics of putting a news story together. Dittoe sheets containing an essential outline of the talk were distributed to those present.

Among the sub-topics discussed were the ingredients that go into lead or first sentence of a news story such as it should answer the question: who, what, where, when, why and how. The eight basic types of leads were also thoroughly analyzed.

The inverted pyramid form of writing contributed an essential part to the lecture. This is simply the method of writing a story so that the important facts will come at its beginning with those to follow being placed in a decending order of significance.

The various copyreading symbols such as the sign to use for transposing words in a sentence were fully illustrated. Re-writing such stories as clippings from other papers and publicity copy along with the do's and don't to follow in journalistic writing were also presented with simplicity to the new staff members.

Concluding the meeting was the explanation of how to prepare copy such as typing it double spaced on standard sheets of pulp paper with the proper copy symbols and headings used.

The next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday at 4 o'clock p.m. in the Sizzler room at Neville. All staff members, both business and editorial, are urged to attend. Other essential phases in the vast field of newspaper work will be presented to the staff in a similar manner as it was done in the Friday meeting.

Those who attended the meeting were: Barbara Koch, Bobby Johnson, Allen Foster, Carrick Inabnett, Warren Lassiter, Helen Theus, Bob Harrell, Mickie Tarver, Billy Allen, Betsey Blackmon, Dotty Dawson.

Twin Cities Youth Groups Head For Training Meeting

A group of twenty-eight local Hi-Y—Tri-Hi-Y, and Y-Teen leaders from the Twin Cities YMCA and YWCA left this morning for Blue Ridge, North Carolina where they will attend the Blue Ridge Hi-Y—Tri-Hi-Y Leaders Training Congress next week.

The Congress is designed for the leaders of the clubs from senior high schools. It's main objective is to prepare the club members and advisors for leadership in local Hi-Y—Tri-Hi-Y movement.

Workshops to be held will embrace such club helps as interpretation, inductions, rituals, service projects, program building, club relationships, membership practices, devotional programs, methods and techniques.

Area delegates to the congress are, Don Andrews, Jimmy Awl, Clarice Brown, Bob Carter, John Cobb, Phil Corder, Gerald Dean, James M. Ford, Jr., Archie Gilliland, Joy Goza, Jimmy Leverett, Howard Lewis, Travis McClendon, Barbara Mittell, George Patterson, S. Charles Phillips, Jerry Robinson, Jr., Karl Thompson, Allen Trousdale, Pat Williams, Jerry Womack, and Tommy Davenport; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kulcke, and John D. Pennington, Adult Advisors; Miss Bess Sharp, executive secretary of the YWCA, and Crarles A. Wood, YMCA.

The Monroe Civitan Club, Monroe Lions Club, the Monroe Rotary Club, and the North Monroe Lions jointly assisting with transportation expenses and are making it possible for the group to attend this special leadership training congress.

The group will go by chartered bus and will return to Monroe next Sunday evening August 19.

Bell Candidate

that a Constitutional Convention be called for the purpose of rewriting, codifying, correcting, consolidating, and "stream-lining" Louisiana's present voluminous Constitution. This proposal is to be voted upon by the people on November 6.

"I feel that my experience, education and background qualify me to capably discharge the duties of such position, and it is with a keen sense of humility that I now offer by services to the people of Ouachita Parish, as a candidate for the position as one of the delegates from our Parish.

"I am married; my wife is the former Miss Kathleen Jones; we have one child, ten years of age —C. C. "Butch" Bell, III; and I am 46 years of age. I have lived here in West Monroe (in Ouachita Parish) throughout my entire life, having attended our public schools, and the Chamberlain-Hunt Military Academy, of Port Gibson, Mississippi, and having been graduated from the Riverside Military Academy, of Gainesville, Georgia, in 1929. Thereafter, I attended the University of Alabama's School of Business Administration, for one year, but returned to Ouachita Parish to attend our Junior College during its first year of operation, subsequently completing the two-year course then offered in engineering.

"After completing Junior College here, I became Superintendent of the C. C. Bell Manufacturing Company — now the C. C. Bell, Jr. Sash and Door Company. I worked in this capacity until my induction into the armed services, with the 204th Coast Artillery Regiment of Louisiana in 1941—having by then served with the Louisiana National Guard continuously for more than ten years—enlisting as a private, and going up through all grades to the rank of Master Sargeant, so that, when activated in 1941, I was inducted as a 2nd Lieutenant—serving in the armed forces for more than five years, two of which were in the European Theatre of Operations, receiving my discharge as Captain in the Army of the United States Honorary Reserves.

"Upon my return to civilian life, I was elected as Mayor of the City of West Monroe, where I served for five years; and upon retiring as Mayor, I returned to my own small business—the C. C. Bell, Jr. Sash and Door Company.

"My experience in government, however, does include eight years during which I have served on the Democratic State Central Committee from Ouachita Parish, as Chairman of the Fifth Congressional District Committee.

"I am not a lawyer. I am a business-man, surrounded by laws and regulations of all descriptions — and it is my observation that "business" is made up of "people" —with all of their attendant problems.

"I sincerely believe that I understand people, and understand the problems which confront them. Many business men, throughout this Parish, have assured me that they have found our Constitution to be outmoded and unweild and they universally agree that it should be revised and streamlined to meet present day needs and conditions.

"In this effort to revise, however, I feel that it would be wise for the Constitutional Convention to have the views and attitudes of the people, as well as the finest of our constitutional lawyers—and thus, I seek to represent the people of Ouachita Parish in the matter of the revision of the basic laws which affect them.

"I hope, of course, that the voters of this Parish will consider, in selecting their delegates to the Convention, that it would be well for the framers of our new basic laws to rely to some extent upon the voice which represents the practical application of those laws, and in this respect that I may be chosen to so represent them.

"I do have the highest admiration and respect for all of the fine constitutional lawyers willing, and able, to serve as delegates to the proposed Convention; but in many such cases the needs of the people are sometimes prone to be unintentionally overshadowed in a maze of legal terminology—and I do feel that it would be wise for us to have all our interests—business, as well —represented in our deliberations.

Wade Martin

that he had decided against entering the November elections.

A Requiem Mass will be celebrated at 9 a.m. tomorrow at St Martin's Church here with burial at his birthplace in Arnaudville.

Martin, a vigorous campaigner, was a forceful speaker, both in English and French, and always had a whimsical, folksy story to illustrate his point.

He was a pioneer in flood protection and flood control matters. After the great Mississippi River flood of 1927, he represented the Mississippi Valley before congressional committees. His views that flood control was a national problem and had to be treated as a national obligation were largely responsible for adoption of the federal Flood Control Act of 1928.

Martin was one of the originators of the intracoastal Canal Assn., and lived to see the early plans of the nation's inland waterway system fully realized.

Although he was a lifelong and dedicated Democrat, he became a close friend of former President Hoover, who visited Louisiana to study flood conditions during the 1927 eruption of the Mississippi.

The elder Martin served as sheriff of St. Martin Parish for 16 years. Before embarking on a political career, he taught agriculture at Southwestern Louisiana Institute.

Gov Earl Long, in Chicago for the Democratic National Convention, said he was "very sorry" on hearing of Martin's death.

"He was a fine old man," the governor said "I'm sorry we weren't on as good terms politically as we should have been at the time of his death. He held some of the highest offices in the state. I liked him and admired him."

Rep. Willis, whose sister was married to Martin's brother, said he had lost a "dear, personal friend."

Wade O. Martin Jr., the secretary of state, was in Florida at The airport at Jacksonville, where he was reached, was closed and he was unable to fly home.

The younger Martin tried to get a plane also at Tallahassee, but again was unsuccessful. He drove back and was expected to arrive home sometime during the night.

Other survivors include the widow; another son, Dr. Murphy Martin of St. Martinville; two daughters, Mrs. Jane Guirard of St. Martinville and Mrs. Douglas Svendson of Baton Rouge; and three sisters, Ida Martin and Mrs. Charles Lewis of New Orleans, and Mrs. Henry Durio of Iota.

"The essential ingredient of the criminal offense is the failure of a government official to discharge conscientiously the duties of his office or his failure to administer the federal law in an unbiased manner," he said.

Truman Will

result in the eventual nomination of a "dark horse" candidate.

However, Stevenson's campaign manager, James A. Finnegan, said he believes the front-running former Illinois governor can win without Mr. Truman's endorsement. Finnegan's statement highlighted the tension in the Stevenson camp as it awaited the Truma announcement.

Mr. Truman, obviously enthralled by the political maneuvering, was under heavy pressure from many old political associates to throw his support to Harriman—the man long regarded as his favorite. Harriman's agents moved in and out of the Truman suite throughout the day.

But a good many other delegates, including some equally close to the former President, thought we would give the nod to Stevenson, if only in recognition of the fact that Stevenson stood a good chance of winning it anyway —after a furious battle.

Two top Harriman strategists—Tammany Hall leader Carmine DeSapio and former party Chairman Frank McKinney — also conferred with Mr. Truman. They said they discussed "the very important issue" of how best to beat the Republicans in November.

Without elaboration, they added that they are both "Truman men" and will abide by his judgment as to the party's presidential candidate. Mr. Truman also met with Gov. A. B. (Happy) Chandler, of Kentucky, the third avowed candidate for the nomination. Chandler said he got no "discouragement."

The series of huddles came as platform writers worked on a compromise civil rights plank that would s i d e s t e p the Supreme Court's school integration ruling. Party leaders pressed their drive to head off a North-South split on the issue.

Former Gov. John S. Battle of Virginia said several proposed versions submitted to him were based chiefly on the party's 1952 stand on the issue. He said southerners "can live under then" since they make no mention of the court order."

witnesses demanding a school desegregation plank questions that might have touched off explosive debate.

The hold-down was helped along by sandwiching witnesses backing less controversial measures between those advocating party endorsement of the Supreme Court desegregation edict.

How long the truce would last was uncertain. Many witnesses still were to be heard. Plans to wind up the hearings today had to be junked. Now they are going over into tomorrow.

Only toward the end today did the air of tension in the crowded committee room begin to relax. Chairman John McCormack sat on the lid.

After one noisy outburst, when AFL-CIO President George Meany demanded that the part meet the civil rights issue "head on," Rep. McCormack requested no further "manifestations."

This was the first time in the hearings, which started Monday, that the chairman has attempted to shut off applause.

Meany, who was flanked by other officials of his big labor organization, told the platform drafters any failure on the part of the Democratic convention to come out plainly in support of the court decision would be considered by labor as "a deliberate evasion of this vital issue."

Four Missing

night. Pontoons were in place.

Two helicopters probed the river bank looking for survivors, but the Coast Guard said none was sighted.

Listed as missing were:

Lawrence J. Boudreau, 23, Raceland.

Clinton Bennett, 35, Slidell.

Joseph (Ed) Clanton, Vealmore, Tex.

Herbert Ray, Kilgore, Tex.

Boudreau and Bennett were employes of Avondale and Ray and Clanton of Southeastern.

Workmen said Boudreau and Bennett were below deck shortly before the accident and Ray and Clanton were topside.

The work crews held some hope that Boudreau and Bennett may be alive in the barge pump room, on the bottom deck in the center of the barge. In the overturned position, the room would be in the highest part of the barge and may have retained air.

Most of the workmen believed the other two were dead.

About 30 men were aboard when the barge began to list.

One of the injured, Earl Theriot, 33, of Bridge City, said, "When I felt the rig listing to the starboard, I yelled to some of the fellows working with me, 'let's get out of here.'

"I jumped about 15 feet into the river and was pulled ashore when a worker on the wharf threw me a rope."

lican leaders in northwestern states that the Californian did more harm than good in that area by making speeches of "too extreme a nature."

Democrats have accused Nixon of implying during the 1954 campaign that their party was "soft on communism." Stassen indicated he thought Nixon's charges may have backfired to the detriment of GOP candidates he was trying to help.

Stassen, President Eisenhower's disarmament adviser now on leave, made his statement about Nixon in an "open letter" to all delegates to the GOP convention, Republican governors and members of Congress. He said he would send a copy to Nixon.

Heretofore, Stassen has refrained from personal criticism of Nixon, other than to say that polls showed the vice president would cost the President 6 per cent of his potential votes if Nixon remained on the GOP ticket this year.

Besides his implied criticism of Nixon's campaign tactics, Stassen said he also was told that "the essential portion of organized labor needed to carry Washington and Oregon were opposed" to Nixon.

He reported a conservation with a long-time Republican AFL leader who "made a special trip to Washington to tell me of his serious concern of the effect of the vice president's name."

Harriman Arrives In Chicago To Boost Nomination

CHICAGO, Aug. 10—UP— Gov. Averell Harriman, hitting hard at the civil rights issue, arrived Friday and took personal charge of his drive to win former President Truman's support for his bid for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Harriman held a news conference shortly after his plane landed and then conferred with Mr. Truman. The former President had talked, earlier with Adlai E. Stevenson, the New York governor's front-running rival.

Like Stevenson, Harriman was greeted cordially by Mr. Truman but received no promises of support from the admittedly powerful Missourian. The ex-president plans to announce his choice Saturday.

Failure of Harriman to win Mr. Truman's endorsement would virtually kill his hopes of capturing the nomination at next week's national convention. If he is tapped by Mr. Truman, his chances are vastly improved but still by no means certain.

A Truman endorsement of Stevenson would all but clinch the nomination for the former Illinois governor.

After meeting with Harriman, Mr. Truman praised the New Yorker as "a good fighter," a good fighter," a qualification valued highly by the "give 'em Hell" Missouri campaigner. Mr. Truman also said that "a pleasant visit with Averell Harriman is always a successful conference."

Harriman and his camp took hope from these words. As a spokesman at Harriman's headquarters put it:

"If Mr. Truman announces his support of Gov. Harriman, we have won the battle. If it goes against us we have a real tough fight ahead."

Harriman refused after his talk with the former President to discuss the possibility of Truman support, referring all questions to Mr. Truman. But he said that "any time my name is associated with President Truman I am very proud."

On civil rights, Harriman said it was "inconceivable" to him that the Democrats "should turn aside from the principles which were expressed in the platforms of our party in 1948 and 1952.

He called on party platform writers to write in a plank stating that the Democrats consider the Supreme Court decisions on school desegregation and other forms of racial discrimination as "the law of the land."

Any such plank would explode into a southern revolt that could just about wreck the nominating convention before it got underway.

Housewife Gets Army Citation For Kindness

MERIDIAN, Miss., Aug. 10 (AP)— A housewife's kindness to a hospitalized, bereaved soldier's widow today won her an Army commendation.

Maj. Gen. Douglas Johnson of Atlanta, Ga., deputy commanding general of the U. S. Third Army, presented Mrs. Clyde McMinn a "certificate of appreciation" for helping Mrs. Bonnie Reese.

Mrs. Reese had been injured in an automobile accident in which her husband, Sgt. 1.C. Everett Reese Sr., and their 4-year-old son, Everett Reese Jr., were killed.

Mrs. McMinn immediately went to Mrs. Reese's aid, remaining at her bedside for eight days and, according to official Army reports, "was instrumental in bringing Mrs. Reese out of a severe case of shock."

Gen. Johnson said Mrs. McMinn "set a great example for us of the Army by showing such love, charity, self-sacrifice and good will. She has gained the honor, respect and gratitude of all."

The citation was signed by Lt. Gen. Thomas Hickey of Atlanta, commanding general of the Third Army.

Mrs. McMinn also arranged for Mrs. Reese to have regular visits from Meridian women to help her re-adjust to her new situation and she spearheaded a drive to raise money for clothing, baggage and an airline ticket to Mrs. Reese's Denmark, S. C., home.

Among those present today were Meridian mayor W. S. Smylie, the city council, Maj. E. I. Fishpaw, U. S. Army reserve advisor, Col. Robert Naylor, chief of the Mississippi Military District, members of the civilian Army advisory committee and numerous friends.

2 Young Lawyers Hang Out Shingle To Begin Practice

FARMERVILLE, Aug. 10 (Special) — James M. Dozier, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dozier of Farmerville and James L. Dendy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Dendy of Bernice, opened offices here Monday for general law practice.

Both young men are 1956 graduates of the Louisiana State University law school and both were admitted to the bar on June 12. They also have been approved for practice before the U. S. district court for the western district of Louisiana.

Dozier was president of the senior class in the law school while Dendy was vice president. Both men are members of Gamma Eta Gamma legal fraternity.

266 Youngsters Get Swim Instructions

LAKE PROVIDENCE, Aug. 10 (Special) — Figures released by Frank Voelker, Jr., chairman of the East Carroll parish recreation committee, show that a total of 266 children enrolled in the swimming program which concluded on July 31.

The program, as inaugurated by Paul Geisler, parish director, gave swimming instruction to 59 children from the Transylvania area, 38 from Monticello and 104 from Lake Providence.

From this number, certificates were issued to 54 beginners, 16 intermediates and 7 swimmers. Even though all who were enrolled did not pass the requirements for certificates, the attendance was very good, with a total of 2,621 for the two months.

2 Scouts Enter 'Order Of Arrow'

LAKE PROVIDENCE, Aug. 10 (Special) — Frank A. Cain, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Cain, and Purvis Thomas, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Purvis Thomas, both members of Scout Troop 25, were initiated into the "Order of the Arrow" in appropriate ceremonies at Camp Ki-Ro-Li near West Monroe, Sunday.

Only one other Scout in East Carroll parish belongs to this honor society of Scouts.

Wrestling Will Be Sponsored By 40 & 8 In L. Providence Mon.

LAKE PROVIDENCE, Aug. 10 (Special) — The local voiture of the Forty and Eight will sponsor a wrestling match Monday, August 13, at 8 p.m.

The match which will be held at Legion Field will feature Jack Curtis of Monroe who will oppose Frank Hurley in the main event. For the semi-final match, Phil Brummett will face Jack Snow.

Proceeds from the event will go toward the swimming pier fund, to which the Forty and Eight donates annually. Admission prices for the matches are posted in various business establishments.

A guided missile camera has been developed for the Navy which it is said, will be able to take as many as 200 pictures a second.

Orchard Installs Alexandria 40 & 8

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 10 (Special) — American Legion officers for George Simmons Post No. 3 took office after their installation here Thursday night.

Installation of the "Forty and Eight" were conducted by Sam Orchard, of Monroe, Louisiana, Grand Chef de Gare.

Long Spits In The Face Of Justice

Governor Earl K. Long was quoted in an Associated Press dispatch Wednesday as having told a New Orleans States correspondent aboard a Chicago-bound train that he would use the power of reprieve to free any or all of seventeen St. Bernard Parish deputy sheriffs under indictment for election irregularities during last week's primary.

Long was en route to the Democratic National Convention in Chicago.

The St. Bernard Parish grand jury indicted the seventeen deputies in a post-election probe sparked by the pulling of a plug from an automatic voting machine by a deputy during the primary.

The probe was conducted by District Attorney Leander Perez, Jr. son of Governor Long's arch political foe in Louisiana.

In announcing that he intends to reprieve the deputies as fast as the courts might convict them, Governor Long made a promise that, if carried out, will subject him to possible impeachment and removal from office.

He has placed himself in the untenable position of thumbing his nose at the authorities of St. Bernard Parish—the grand jury, the prosecuting attorney, and the courts.

He is pre-judging a judicial proceeding on the basis of rank political bias and hatred directed toward a single individual.

He is saying that regardless of facts, law, morals, equity or the Louisiana constitution he will make sure that possible malefactors need fear no punishment for their crimes, if convicted by juries of their peers, in this important instance.

Here is brazen political gall and presumption by a would-be state dictator, who seeks to brush aside the processes of justice, including grand juries and courts, as though they were chaff under his feet.

Whether the seventeen deputies, or any one of them, violated the law or conspired to perpetrate an election fraud is a matter for the courts to decide. These men are innocent until proved guilty.

But for a Governor to arrogate to himself in advance of court proceedings the right to say that these men have immunity of reprieve is outrageous. In doing this, Long literally spits in the face of justice, as represented by the courts of Louisiana.

The powers of pardon and reprieve, vested in the Governor's office, are delegated power subject to strict rules, hedged about by wise limitations of law.

The day that the Governor reprieves the first one of these men, should one or more of them be convicted, he will lay himself wide open to moves aimed to oust him from office.

That such moves will be made, let no one doubt!

Revolts Against Reds In China

Reports of large-scale revolts in Red China have agitated Southeast Asian intelligence circles for several weeks; and now they have been brought into the open by the Nationalist Chinese on Formosa.

According to these reports, open fighting has flared between well organized guerrilla bands and Chinese Red troops in three widely separated areas—Tibet, western Szechuan, and northern Mongolia.

Official newspapers in Taipei, Formosan capital, assert that the Mongolian "uprising" broke out as an aftermath of Red Chinese efforts to destroy the ancient religions of the region in favor of godless socialism.

The Tibetan situation, with a strong religious complex, has smouldered for months; and proof is strong that a bloody war of resistance is being waged by the proud, isolated Tibetans against their Red oppressors; and that this war has achieved at least local successes.

The most surprising development, however, is the reported revolt in Szechuan, a remote province of western China, one of the first Chinese provinces to embrace Communism—noted throughout the Orient for the fighting qualities of its men-at-arms, thousands of whom fought with distinction with the Chinese Communists in the Korean war.

Szechuan province borders Tibet, and perhaps the spirit of resistance from that lofty land is spreading eastward. If so, the development might be highly significant.

China offers the oldest continuous and unbroken culture of any nation on earth today; and its culture has been in the past something apart from wars and uprisings and the rise and fall of dynasties, and conquest by foreign invaders.

It has submitted to a number of conquests; and, dragon-like, masticated and swallowed the conquerors, over a period of decades, till their very memories were forgotten, and any influence they might have attempted to exert was lost in the vast stream of time.

The Soviet dream of using China as a bellwether of Communism, in the opinion of many persons who know modern China well through years of residence and association, and know its history through the ages, is fated to disastrous failure.

The West, led by the United States, tried valiantly for more than half a century to make China a Democracy in the western sense; and failed miserably.

The Communists are trying by methods of horrible cruelty, repression and extermination to make China a Communist satellite.

They have sown the wind, and the day will come when they reap the whirlwind; and in the dust and rubble of their vast conquest and indoctrination program their very memory will be forgotten by the placid Chinese—who have chewed and swallowed greater conquests by greater conquerors in the immemorial past.

Why was a man fined $50 for kissing a girl unknown to him while they were waiting for a bus? He was following the Golden Rule, wasn't he? That is, he did unto her as he would have had her do unto him.

THESE DAYS

By George Sokolsky

Adult Delinquents

J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI recently said on a broadcast, "a criminal is not born—a criminal is made."

Except for the very few who are idiots or morons, because of damage to the brain, most children would grow up wholesome members of society, if they were not corrupted in the years of their upbringing.

The Board of Education of New York City is facing precisely this problem and is having a tough time of it because of the multi-religious character of the city's population and the competition among the various religious groups.

In 1951, the New York State Board of Regents adopted a "Statement of Moral and Spiritual Training in the Schools." In 1953, the New York City Board of Education passed two resolutions on this subject, one of which required each day to begin with the "Pledge of Allegiance" and the singing of the fourth stanza of "America." When I read this resolution, I was shocked because when I went to New York City's public schools we always started the day with the "Pledge of Allegiance." It never occurred to me that anybody would have had the temerity to drop this essential affirmation of belonging and of loyalty.

The other resolution had to do with ". . . insuring that such curriculum includes appropriate programs of instruction emphasizing the spiritual interest and patriotic motivations of our pioneering ancestors, the devotion and self-sacrifice of the Founding Fathers and their abiding belief in the principles of democracy."

In the document on this subject, issued July, 1956, the statement is made that "Religious education and training are not functions of state-supported schools. Religious education and training are the exclusive responsibility of the home, church and synagogue . . ."

This is stated with too much finality, although in New York those who must face every municipal function as a political problem, nothing else can be said. But parents have to view the question differently. The child spends five or six hours a day at school and sometimes many more. It is inconceivable that during those many hours, the child should be altogether without religious education, without moral teachings, without ethical precepts. The fear of one religious group that another might be more attractive or present its case more attractively does not take into consideration the welfare of the child but rather the numerical strength of its votaries. So, the statement says:

". . . It is neither a function nor a prerogative of the public schools to teach religion or to indoctrinate pupils with the tenets, doctrines or dogmas of any religion, of any sect, or of secularism. This is a simple reaffirmation of a prized and basic characteristic of America's legal and constitutional heritage."

But it has been the prized and fundamental characteristic of America's legal and constitutional heritage to teach religion and a morality based on religion in our schools. All one needs to do is to read the early school readers of this country or to take the McGuffey Readers which strengthened the characters of millions of Americans at the time of this nation's greatest period of upbuilding. No one taught anything sectarian; they taught religion. Nobody used the school to proselytize; they taught God and His law of life.

J. Edgar Hoover has stated the results of the change of attitude:

"Now as to the seriousness of the problem, I think I can point out to you that in 1955 one out of every thirty-five youths between the ages of ten and seventeen was arrested. Five hundred seventy-six thousand persons under the age of eighteen were taken into custody in the United States. This happens to be an increase of eleven percent over the previous calendar year. At the present time the record shows that forty-two percent of all persons arrested for major crimes are persons under the age of eighteen, and of that number, more than one-half are under the age of fifteen."

These are the cold facts of our society in which sectarianism has taken the place of religion, politics the place of morality, materialism the place of God. The increase in juvenile delinquency can only convict the adults who corrupt their own children by withholding from them God's gift of moral law which alone can guide human beings, of whatever faith, to the moral life. Human experience has established that for it there is no substitute. (Copyright, 1956, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

NEW YORK Confidential

Everything's Great in the Garden State: Governor Meyner has got a new best girl and her name is Helen Stevenson. She's the 27-year-old daughter of the president of Oberlin College and she's a relative of Adlai and working on his campaign. And the pay off is that when the Democratic Guv of New Jersey wanted to take his new gal to see "My Fair Lady" and make an impression on her with the priceless tickets, who do you think he had to get them from? You're right. A Republican!

I Shoulda Stood in Bed (And So Should You): Joe DiMaggio's last date before flying to the Coast was with pretty Mona Knox at the Villa Victor in Glen Cove, or anyway that's what I was told . . . and talking about flying reminds me that Godfrey, Arthur that is, had better mount machine guns on his private plane because Marion Marlowe is taking flying lessons . . . Claudette Colbert's brother, agent Charley Wendling and the missus are at the fireworks stage over the alimony and the "others." . . . Marguerite Chapman's latest heartbeat is Manning Ross, the actor, who was once Pat Coogan's heartbeat and if I ever hear the word heartbeat after September, I will scram to a desert isle.

The Right to Be Red: This will make headlines and all the bleeding hearts will heartbleed next month, when the Dept. of Justice explodes its newest H-Bomb to cancel the citizenship of all persons who were naturalized while Communists, regardless of later phony pleas that their moods or minds changed.

No Tickee, No Washee: The stereotype of the Chinese is not true in N. Y.'s Chinatown, where the typical businessman talks, dresses and acts no different than his occidental fellow member of the Rotary, Lions or Kiwanis. One of Chinatown's best known citizens is Jimmy Typond, who was the banking partner of the late and fabulous "Shavey" Lee, "Mayor" of Chinatown. Jimmy and his wife, Lonnie, are running Shavey's old Tung - Sai Restaurant on Mulberry St. where they've invented a new drink, the Pink Cooler, a knock-out of vodka, lemon sherbert and fruit juice, and you end up in the cooler. And Jimmy's college student daughters are just about the prettiest gals in Chinatown

I Write It, You Skip It (And We're All Happy): Ann Miller and Conrad Hilton found out it's love after all . . . Sylvia Sims and Ed Begley, an ex - Mr. Martha Raye, are what the other columnists call an item, but I call a bore . . . Steve Crane (wasn't he once Mr. Lana Turner?) going international with "Miss Belgium" whoever she is and I don't care . . . Barbara Rush, the doll in "Bigger Than Life" thinks Mickey Knox is bigger than life, and I could of sworn I wrote this before, but maybe I'm Bridey Murphry . . Just wait until you get a gander at Sheree North's bare midriff in 20th Fox's upcoming "The Best Things in Life Are Free." But you've got to pay admission to see these best things . . . Jim Kempner would like to get Dorothy Shay to shay yes, and I swear I'm not drunk. It's just what the press - agent wrote.

Requiem For Baby Doe: Sudden death at 38 of librettist John La Touche was a shocker for Leyna Gabrielle, the lovely soprano who "stole" the show from the Met Opera's Dolores Wilson at the recent world preem of La Touche's "Ballad of Baby Doe" at the Central City, Colo., Opera Festival. Leyna, the wife of Vito Pisa, owner of the fabulous Chez Vito in E. 60th St., was singing light opera there until June, when La Touche and composer Doug Moore spotted her and engaged her as the alternate lead for their modern opera. She got such good notices that Mike Myerber, who will do the show on Bway this winter, plans to star her in it. La Touche had completed the revisions for the N. Y. production only a few hours before he died . . . Meanwhile, because of the turn - away business (even during the worst of these dog days) at the club where lightning struck Leyna, Vito is opening an exact replica of it in Westchester complete with eight strolling fiddles, singers, red - plush, romantic candles, French paintings and all the trimmings that made Chez Vito the most talked of resort in the U. S. He's also building a new room in 60th St. to take care of the Manhattan overflow.

Less of This Than That: Call me Cupid Mortimer after my line bout Jimmy Ryan hand - holding with actress Pat O'Brien. There's another struggling and unknown young actress named Pat O'Brien. The marine she likes read it here and thought I meant here. He long-distanced jealous what's whats? And didn't believe her denials. So he wangled a pass and is winging his way to N. Y. Now this Pat O'Brien (who's changing her name to Diane O'Brien to avoid confusion) is very happy indeed . . . Peripatetic means someone who gets around, which is just what the fabulous Baxter Twins of TV and advertising fame do. This week, Ann is in Miami with song - star Helen O'Connell, living it up on the cuff in the Presidential Suite of the Fontainebleau (and what presidents stayed there, I ask?)

His Good Points

"Isn't it too bad that Louise has such straight hair? Mine is curly. She didn't inherit her father's quickness, either. Seems as if she got all the low points and none of the high ones."

"She has her winning her spots. She has fine eyes and a lovely voice. She is intelligent and has a fine disposition which makes friends for her wherever she goes. Straight hair. Pooh! Straight hair atop a good mind isn't bad at all," and Grandmother looked fondly after her grandchild as she went on her way."

"I suppose you're right but I just can't help wishing she had the best of everything; good looks, a great talent or something out of the ordinary."

"Huh," grunted Grandmother. I'll settle for good health, intelligence and a decent disposition any day. I've seen some of your brilliant people and you can have them. Their artificial manners, tantrums, moods—no thanks. They make you pay for their gifts. I'll take Louise straight hair and all."

It is natural enough for parents to want their children to be outstanding, to wish they might be world wonders, but children rarely come that way. They are more likely to be closely patterned to their immediate grandparents and parents. As Grandmother said, "That's not too bad either."

Great beauty, great talent, have their penalties as a casual reading of biography will soon show. Fame has its price and a very high one in terms of personal happiness. To be healthy mentally and physically, to have a good mind and a friendly attitude toward people is to have a great share of this world's good gifts. Armed with them any boy or girl is well set for a life of happiness and success.

Every child, even a genius, particularly the genius, has his limitations. A genius in mathematics was so unprepossessive that he wes refused admission to the famous university he was fitted to enter. His teachers had to intercede for him until, grudgingly, he was admitted. A famous Frenchwoman whose salon was crowded every evening bore scars of smallpox on her face, which was none too prepossessing to begin with. But her mind was wonderful.

Beauty is more than skin deep and power lies deeper still. Praise the child's good points. Accent his ability in whatever field it may lie and you will not only stimulate that talent you will stimulate the spirit of the child and light him up with the beauty that is not of this world, the transcendant beauty of the spirit.

Every child has his good points. Dwell on them.

Does your child get along well with his playmates? Is he timid and lonely? Dr. Patri has written a helpful booklet for parents, No. 304, "Your Child and Other People." To obtain a copy, send 25 cents in coin to him, care of this paper, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Demo Rivals Had Famous Ancestors

It will be an Ivy League finish at the Democratic convention. Never before have graduates of that distinguished group of eastern seats of learning contended against one another for the presidential nomination of either party.

The Democrats have finally narrowed the stretch run down to Adlai E. Stevenson of Princeton and W. Averell Harriman of Yale, with old Nasser as the favorite.

Another first this pair has in common, is that for the fist time in modern history descendants of two nationally famous figures are competing for a presidential nomination. Stevenson's grandfather was vice president of the United States from 1893 to 1897, when Grover Cleveland was serving his second term. Harriman's father was not only one of the country's leading financiers, but took an active part in the 1904 campaign, giving financial aid to both Theodore Roosevelt and the Republican nominee and his Democratic opponent, Alton B. Parker.

The two have other similarities, since both are divorced men. The only other contender for the Democratic nomination of that status, Governor Albert . Ritchie of Maryland, didn't make it in 1932, when the nominee was another governor, Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York. Harriman, in addition, is remarried to a divorcee.

Stevenson's grandfather was a native of Kentucky, whose father had been a slave owner. He attended Centre College, Ky., which later had famous football teams, but he didn't play football. Instead he married the daughter of the college president, and returned to his home in Illinois to become a highly successful lawyer.

His rise to national prominence began when he was made first assistant postmaster general in the first Cleveland administration, which gave him the job of replacing 40,000 Republican postmasters with Democrats. He accomplished that with such success that enraged Republicans dubbed him "the headsman", and a Republican Senate refused to confirm him for the federal judgeship to which Cleveland appointed him.

Cleveland did not forget him, however, and when nominated a second time in 1892, gladly gave Stevenson his approval as a running mate, after the Illinoisan had headed his state delegation to the convention and swung it for Cleve-land, Stevenson, praised by biog-ure-raphers for "his natural modesty, capacity for friendship and great personal charm" was an inconspicuous vice president, as most of them were in those days. He was later the Democratic nominee for governor of Illinois in 1908, but was defeated by Republican Charles S. Deneen.

Stevenson's father, Lewis Stevenson, was a lesser figure in the Democratic party, who served as secretary of state of Illinois from 1914 to 1917. He was a delegate at large from Illinois to the Democratic convention in Houston in 1928, and voted for Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York, the last Democrat not in the White House to be nominated on the first ballot.

The political record of Governor Harriman's father would be used as a TV spectacular. E. H. Harriman in 1904 had a score to settle with President Theodore Roosevelt, who had threatened Harriman with anti-trust action to dissolve his control of the Tennessee Coal & Iron Co., one of the south's great utility combinations and of his western railroad holdings. Harriman first contributed money to the campaign of Democratic nominee Alton B. Parker in an attempt to beat T. R.

As the 1904 presidential election neared he made peace with Roosevelt and supported him. Parker, making the keynote speech at the 1912 Baltimore convention which nominated Woodrow Wilson, recalled the letter which Roosevelt had written to Harriman in October 1904, suggesting that the financier visit him at the White House, which began, "Now, my dear sir, you and I are practical men."

Roosevelt added, "If you think there is any danger of your visit to me causing trouble, or if you think there is nothing special I need be informed about, or no matter on which I could give you aid, why, of course, give up the visit, and then, in a few weeks hence before I write my message (to Congress) I shall get you to come down to discuss certain government matters not connected with the campaign."

The elder Harriman seeing no "danger" hurried to Washington and later, Parker charged, "raised the quarter of million demanded (for Roosevelt's campaign) with ten thousand over for good measure."

Worry Clinic

By Dr. George W. Crane

Mrs. Crane thinks the letter quoted below is possibly the nicest one that I have received in 20 years of writing this column, so she asked me to reprint it today. It certainly was gracious of Mrs. Soley to be so kind with compliments, but it also shows all of us why it is so important that we leave constructive "personality imprints" on our companions while we mingle with them.

Case S-336: Mrs. James Soley, aged possibly 32, lives near St. Louis, and sent me a very unusual letter not long ago.

The cases I describe in this column are office patients, but once in a blue moon I get such a unique letter that I feel warranted in reprinting it.

Mrs. Crane thinks Mrs. Soley's recent letter is probably the nicest that ever came to me, so I am quoting most of it herewith:

"Dr. Crane," Mrs. Soley began, "I want to thank you very much for the wonderful way in which you reared my husband.

"You didn't know it, but ever since he was a boy of 12 and without a father, you have been his guide.

"And I must say you have done a job to be proud of. If you could meet Jim personally, you'd realize why I say that.

"We have been married for 5 years and it has taken me that long to get all the details, a little at a time.

"When Jim was 8, his mother remarried. At 12, he was practically earning his own way. And when the war broke out, he felt he owed it to his country to get in immediately.

"He took special training at the University of Iowa. It was hard and he had no encouragement from home.

"But he said your daily newspaper articles always seemed to catch him at his low points and spur him onward.

"Even overseas he followed your column. On the Beach at Normandy; in the Black Forest, and through the Bremmer Pass you kept boosting his morale.

"Jim says he was scared sometimes in those long fights but his prayers always seemed to be answered by your newspaper columns.

"Well, Jim came home from the war and we met. After a courtship of two years, we were married. And we have been very happy.

"But once again I wish to thank you for the wonderful way you guided my husband from boyhood to manhood.

"If you and Mrs. Crane ever come to St. Louis, you have a standing invitation to a home cooked meal (I bake my own bread, too). You are always most welcome."

Well, even if Mrs. Soley were exaggerating greatly, her gracious letter shows the power of the newspaper to help buoy up morale and educate people to meet the problems of adulthood.

The front page of a newspaper contains the news flash stories of deaths, storms, war and other last-minute startling events.

The comics entertain and the sports pages stimulate youth to wholesome competition.

But the editorial page and the various columns can also render a valuable educational service that may have lifelong influence.

On several occasions I have received letters from distraught readers who said they were on the verge of suicide or divorce or mental collapse.

In desperation they had appealed to God in prayer to PLEASE show them a way out of their dilemmas.

And that very day I may have had a Case Record that seemed to be that exact answer to their prayers.

Maybe that's how God often operates. Perhaps he uses one human being to answer the prayer of another and vice versa.

This is a wonderful world when you team up with God Almighty and try to live according to the rules of the game of life.

When the roll is called UP YONDER, you may be surprised to find how many people you have helped over the rough spots here on this earth, even though you weren't even aware of doing so.

British Put Military Buildup 'Brake' On

LONDON, Aug. 10 (AP)—Britain tonight braked her build-up of military power in the Middle East under mounting pressure for a peaceful settlement of the Suez Canal crisis.

The slowdown came as Western diplomats spread the word of an American-British-French plan to guarantee the freedom and international control of the waterway as part of a compromise settlement with Egypt.

The plan evisages a new isternational treaty to govern the use of Suez and conditional recognition of Egypt's nationalization of the canal and its installations.

Prime Minister Eden and his military chiefs ordered a second postponement of a mammoth trooplift to the Mediterranean, then announced withdrawal of two parachute battalions from Cyprus, Britain's Middle East military headquarters.

The official war office explanation was that the parachute troopers are coming home to continue their training, for which better facilities are available here than on Cyprus.

President Gamal Abdel Nasser's Egyptian regime meantime challenged Britain's right to have called next week's London conference on the Suez dispute and charged Eden is trying to belittle Nasser in the eyes of the Egyptian people.

A statement issued by the Egyptian embassy here served the first official notice that Egypt will boycott the projected 24-nation conference mixed to open next Thursday.

Egypt took the same line as Soviet Russia did yesterday by questioning the composition of the conference and declared further the participants will be left with "no choice other than to accept the British point of view."

The British Foreign Office admitted bewilderment about the meaning of Russia's critical reply to the invitation. The Soviet government, while saying it would participate, listed nearly a dozen objections to the talks as they are envisaged by the United States, Britain and France.

Britain, however, brushed off the Russian bid to recast and postpone the meeting. Officials said it will begun Thursday as arranged, with or without the Russians.

In Athens, informed sources said Greece has decided to attend. Assuming the Russians send a delegation, that would leave only Egypt unrepresented among the 24 nations on the conference list.

Greece is cool toward Britain over the Cyprus union-with-Greece rebellion and had suggested the Suez conference be held later at some place other than London. The Athens informants said the British turned down these suggestions and the Greeks decided to go anyway.

Britain already has mounted an impressive display of military power in the Middle East in case of a blowup over Suez. The British moves have led to criticism from such key Commonwealth countries as India and Ceylon, as well as Russia and the Arab states.

At home, seven leftist Laborite legislators asserted publicly Britain would be guilty of aggression if she carried out what they described as Eden's "threat to take unilateral action by force" to impose international control over the canal.

The Liberal Manchester Guardian joined in warning Eden that the use of "blind force" would hurt the West more than Egypt. The Guardian took the view all nations have the right to nationalize resources within their own borders and said the British might expect new seizures of their interests in the Middle East.

Secretary of State Dulles was the key figure in the day's developments in the United States. Dulles:

1. Told Washington newsmen President Eisenhower called congressional leaders to a meeting Sunday because Eisenhower "feels very strongly about sharing responsibilities with Congress ,particularly if there should be any risk of hostilities."

2. Expressed doubt a delay in the conference would be practical, adding "it is a matter principally for the United Kingdom to decide."

3. Flew to New York for a luncheon discussion of the Middle East situation with U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold.

Rainbow Girls Open Drive For The Needy

Monroe's Rainbow girls started the clothes-raising drive for needy school children yesterday with a large contribution of used clothing to the Salvation Army.

The girls gathered the clothes from various homes in the Twin Cities and submitted them to Captain Lewis Mockabee of the Monroe Salvation Army.

The Salvation Army has issued a plea for used clothing, according to Captain Mockabee. He said persons desiring to contribute clothing should call 3-3707 and a representative of the Salvation Army will pick the clothing up.

Kefauver Would Accept Bid For Vice-Presidency

CHICAGO, Aug. 10 —UP— Sen. Estes Kefauver said Friday he "would feel inclined to accept" the Democratic vice presidential nomination if it was offered to him.

The Tennessee Democrat, who bowed out of the party's presidential race in favor of Adlai E. Stevenson, said, however, that he will not work actively for the nomination at the convention opening here next Monday.

Kefauver also predicted Stevenson would win the nomination on the first ballot "if all the favorite sons release their delegates" to the former Illinois governor. Otherwise, he said he believed Stevenson would receive the nomination on the second ballot.

He told a news conference that approximately "75 to 80 per cent" of his delegates who have expressed themselves said they favor Stevenson over New York Gov. Averell Harriman.

He said "quite a number of the rest have said they are willing to support Harriman. Harriman backers have said they expected to pick up as many as half of the Kefauver delegates.

The senator came to conference almost straight from a meeting with former President Truman. Kefauver said he paid his respects to Mr. Truman.

Asked whether Stevenson could win the nomination without Truman's support, Kefauver said "Stevenson has enough delegates to be nominated."

Other vice presidential developments:

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) a long-time Stevenson supporter, said he would accept the vice presidential nomination "if I were asked." But Kennedy, a Catholic, said he also will not campaign for it.

Stevenson lunched with Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-N.M.), also a vice presidential possibility, but said they talked mostly about the farm situation. Stevenson discussed the vice president situation with his top aides.

Stevenson's campaign manager, James A. Finnegan, was asked if Anderson was on Stevenson's list of eligibles for the No. 2 spot on the ticket. Finnegan said any Democratic senator or governor was eligible.

sort of animals people usually make PETS of. Some CUBS are ideal as pets - until they grow up!

13. ONE is best as this would include ODE. If he found a rare ONE he would be thrilled whether it was an ODE or not.

14. THEIR LIVES, or their ARMY'S LINES. (It is "the American LINES", "the enemy's LINES", etc., not "General so-and-so's LINES").

16. The clue implies that this should not be dirty, which is true of a CAP. It is only before they are used that Cups should be clean. A CUP is expected to be dirty after use.

23. This, clearly, is something you SHOULD enjoy, favoring TRIO entertainment. A TRIP may be strictly business and not meant for enjoyment whether you are moody or not.

CLUES DOWN:

1. Certainly no man ever succeeded without an AIM in life. Many a young man without much VIM, but with other talents, HAS succeeded.

2. LOT is preferred. If they don't care a JOT for each other, they won't get married. If they don't care a LOT for each other, they SHOULD not get married, but nevertheless may do so.

3. The clue infers an eventuality. TUMBLE is the most suitable answer. Children would hardly be said to MUMBLE and why when blindfolded? They would be expected to FUMBLE as they felt their way about; thus "might" is an understatement. But they might TUMBLE..

7. The clue firmly implies that during a big "this", there IS noise. This is only necessarily true of GALE. A big billiard or chess GAME, for instance, is played practically in silence.

10. CONCERTS can be RUINED by bad conducting, but a CONCERTO, the actual work of the composer, cannot be. It can only be badly performed.

11. Having no CASE, HE CERTAINLY WON'T go to law. Having no CASH he will "hardly" do so, though he may do in some circumstances.

18. "Refusing" implies a consciousness, as of a MAN when he refuses to work. A FAN fails, rather than "refuses".

19. DEAL is best as ONE false step can easily ruin a DEAL, but surely it takes MORE than one mistake to ruin a WHOLE MEAL?

22. GAS is best as it might make you think of "laughing" and again it might not, depending on whether it was laughing GAS or some other kind. A GAG would probably (not just might) make you think of "laughing", GAY is not grammatically suitable.

SURVIVERS TRAIN-RUNOVER

ALEXANDRIA — UP — Mose Honeywood, 42-year-old Negro escapee from the Central Louisiana State Hospital was recuperating from serious injuries today which he suffered when he fell asleep on the railroad tracks and was run over by a freight train. He suffered a crushed right foot, lacerations of the eft foot and a hip injury. The engine and four cars passed over Honeywood.

Bureau of Business Research reported Friday.

JACKSONVILLE, Tex., Aug. 10 —UP—A Humble gasoline truck knocked over two pumps at a filling station Friday and started a fire that burned fiercely for several minutes. Nobody was hurt and the fire department extinguished the blaze within a short time.

HOUSTON, Aug. 10—UP— William L. McGill, state civil defense director, was admitted to M. D. Anderson hospital Friday for "examination and observation." He came to the hospital from his Austin home.

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex., Aug. 10—UP— Mrs. Bernice Ray Powless, 66, of Corpus Christi, was struck and killed by an automobile Friday as she crossed Highway 9 six miles west of Corpus Christi. Driver of the car was Josephine R. Martinez, 32, of San Antonio.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10 (AP)—The Bureau of Mines reported today stocks of domestic and foreign crude petroleum totaled 279,043,000 barrels on Aug. 4, a net increase of 2,003,000 barrels for the week. Domestic crude increased 1,556,000. Foreign crude increased 447,000.

Daily average production was 7,066,000 barrels, a decrease of 20,000. Runs to stills averaged 7,964,000, a decrease of 26,000.

Stocks, by grade or origin, and change from previous week in thousands of barrels:

Arkansas 2,851 inc 42; Northern Louisiana 2,624 inc 23; Gulf Coast Louisiana 14,216 inc 564; Mississippi 3,265 inc 193; West Texas 59,597 dec 538; Gulf Texas 23,055 inc 780; other Texas 3,611 inc 874.

GREENVILLE, Miss., Aug. 10 (AP)—The first bale of Washington County cotton sold at auction today for 86 cents a pound, a penny higher than last year's first bale brought.

The 525-pound bale of DPL 15 went to J. R. Hodge Cotton Co. of Greenville for $451.50.

The cotton was grown by S. A. and O. B. Dunaway, planters on the Caldmere Plantation.

GRENADA, Miss., Aug. 10 (AP)—Searchers today found the floating body of William Smith, 50-year-old angler, who drowned Monday while fishing from a rented boat in Grenada Lake.

No effort had been made to drag the lake for the Jacksonian's body.

Instead, searchers maintained a patrol to wait until the body floated.

A coroner's jury ruled death was due to accidental drowning. Grenada County Sheriff Tom King said the body floated to the surface in 40 feet of water about a mile from where his empty boat drifted ashore.

HATTIESBURG, Miss., Aug. 10 (AP)—The first bale of cotton from this area sold at auction today for 50 cents a pound.

Ervin Shows of Richton grew the cotton. It was ginned yesterday at Farmers Gin at Petal.

The 465-pound bale sold for $232.50 to Howard Co. of Hattiesburg.

In addition, shows received $75 in premium donations.

RITES TODAY

SHREVEPORT — UP—Funeral services were scheduled today for William F. Woods, 72, prominent civic leader, retired life insurance official and father of Judge William F. Woods, who died yesterday at his home after a long illness. Woods retired in 1941 as manager of the North Louisiana division of the Prudential Insurance Co. His other survivors include his widow and a daughter, Mrs. Harry S. Stephens, Shreveport.

The average disabling illness of people over 65 lasts twice as long as that of persons 15 to 65 years of age, notes the Twentieth Century Fund. But brief illnesses, of less than a week, are less prevalent among the older group.

do better at the other place." White said he presumed the man meant he would look at another bank. With that, White said, the man left the bank.

"In a matter of minutes," White said, "he came back and said he believed he'd take one of our boxes. We went toward the rear of the bank where he flashed a gun and told me we had a holdup on our hands."

After the gunman handed White a paper bag and told him to "fill it up," White went behind the loans and discounts cage where "I knew there would be the least cash."

Apparently the holdup man knew the same thing and barked at White: "Get behind those tellers' cages."

White ducked behind the paneling on his way to the tellers' cages and started warning bank employees: "This is a bank holdup. That man has a gun." White said he engaged in every delaying tactic he could think of.

Getting resless while White delayed things, the gunman shoved his .45 in his belt and shuffled into the office of J. W. Roberson, president of the bank. There he pulled his gun and ordered Roberson to "tell that old man to make it snappy with the cash or I'll shoot your—— —— head off." That was Roberson's first knowledge of the holdup.

Roberson ordered White to "give it to him." White shuffled behind the cages and in a low voice told Tellers Leon Massey and Sam Yeager to "fill the bag with the smaller bills."

After collecting the loot the holdup man shoved his pistol back into his belt, under a coat, and calmly walked out of the bank. Before leaving he told White "three men are with me on the outside."

The getaway car was parked across the street from the bank on Cotton street. The bandit calmly backed his car out of the diagnal parking area and sped west on Cotton street.

Authorities said the bandit had fashioned a ficticious Texas license plate which he superimposed over the Arkansas license on the stolen car he was driving. The bogus Texas plate was removed from the car after the holdup, authorities said.

During the time of the holdup a former deputy sheriff, Loy Scarborough, was in the bank and saw most of the activity, but thought it was "mock holdup" sponsored by the sheriff's department. Such practices have been conducted in the past, Scarborough said.

"Mr. White was so calm and the whole affair seemed so orderly I had no idea it was a real holdup," Scarborough said. "Mr. White was smilling and occassionally chuckled during the holdup. He didn't seem the least bit excited," Scarborough said.

After the robbery, the bank closed for a few minutes to permit investigators to survey the scene.

After the looting was reported law enforcement agencies joined the efforts of the West Monroe authorities and started roadblocks throughout the area and began routine investigation.

Armed with a vivid description of the wanted man, officers started scouting possible leads to the gunman.

At DeMoin Motor Court on Cypress streets, about seven blocks from the bank, Assistant Chief Cullipher and Deputy Causey questioned John Becton, manager. After describing the man they wanted, Becton replied: "I've got that man here. He registered last night (Thursday)."

Becton later told West Monroe Police Chief Jeff W. Caldwell "I knew from the moment I heard his description he was the man the officers wanted."

Becton took Cullipher and Causey to Well's car, parked in a rear section of the tourist court about six cabins west of the room Well occupied. Well apparently parked his car there so it would be better hidden from view.

While Becton pointed out Well's car Capt. Jake Hennen arrived and joined the other two officers as they started to investigate the car.

Before they searched the car, Becton spotted Well as he left his cabin and headed for the car. Becton pointed and told the officers "That's your man."

As he approached, Well went for a snub nosed revolver in his left front pocket. In a flash all three officers whipped out their guns and no doubt would have riddled Well had he ever pulled his gun. Apparently Well's gun was caught in his pocket.

While Causey and Cullipher covered Well Capt. Hennen clamped a pair of handcuffs on the prisoner. As Hennan shackled the prisoner, Well grinned at the officer and quipped "I believe you would have shot me." Hennen replied, "You bet we would have had your gun cleared your pocket."

"Well," Well said dejectedly, "Why didn't you shoot me—I'll have to go back to the penitentiary anyway."

The prisoner was taken to the Ouachita parish jail where he was identified by the bankers as the gunman who took $9,518 and threatened to shoot them if they didn't do as he said.

Well was placed in the hands of the F.B.I. Bank robbery is a federal violation.

After Well was returned to the jail and identified as the bandit, authorities took statements.

While Roberson looked at Well to identify him as the robber, Well asked the banker "Are you mad at me?" Roberson didn't answer him. Then Well added "You shouldn't be mad—I'm the only loser."

The F.B.I. identified Well as a New Orleans man who escaped July 11 from the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., where he was serving a 15-year sentence for a 1949 Houston, Tex., bank robbery.

Well also was wanted in connection with a $5,800 bank robbery in New Orleans July 23. At New Orleans, M. P. Chiles, F.B.I. agent in charge, said a man fitting Well's description robbed a branch of the National Bank of Commerce, escaping in a car driven by an accomplice.

Questioned in Monroe in connection with the New Orleans robbery, Well acknowledged participation in the holdup there.

In the rear of Well's car officers recovered $2,400 they presumed to be a portion of the loot taken in the New Orleans robbery. Asked if it was, Well said he had "worked" for the money.

All the money taken in the West Monroe robbery was recovered. It was found in a blue, zipper handbag in his West Monroe motel room.

Becton, manager of the motel where Well was captured, said the man checked in there Thursday night. He said the then unknown guest registered as "Mr. Howe, of Biloxi, Miss."

Becton said the man was wearing a bathing suit when he arrived at the motel. "He told me he had been to the swimming pool to cool off," Becton said.

In addition to the prison escape at Atlanta, Well now faces charges for the two Louisiana bank robberies, automobile theft and armed robbery.

Zoo Keeper Kills Wife; Takes Own Life With Pistol

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 10—UP—Charles Collar, 25, who worked for the San Antonio zoo, killed his wife with a .45 caliber revolver Friday and then committed suicide.

His wife, Anita, worked for the Salvation Army store. Collar went to the store and threatened to get a gun and kill his wife, witnesses said. No one took him seriously and he left.

But he came back soon with the gun and shot his wife through the heart. It was the third shooting in 24 hours in San Antonio involving husbands and wives.

James Smith, 29, a former pinball machine operator, was charged with murdering his pregnant wife, Cornelia, after she came home from a shower for her expected baby.

In the third husband-and-wife shooting, Lee T. Muse, 46, and his wife, Annie Bel 34, were being treated for bullet wounds in Robert B. Green hospital.

Miss Johnson, Dan Phillips Honored Prior To Wedding

Miss Monta Sue Johnson and Dan Linzie Phillips, whose marriage will be celebrated tonight at 8 p.m. in the Fairbanks Methodist Church were honored at a rehearsal supper given by Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Johnson, Miss Anna Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, in the home of the T. G. Johnsons in Swartz. A pink theme was carried out in the decorations using pink asters and double pink satin hearts. In the dining room the buffet table was covered with a pink linen cloth and was centered with double hearts surrounded by pink asters and pink tapers entwined with ivy. The table where the bride was seated, was covered with a white organdy cloth and centered with a miniature replica of the buffet table. The guests were seated at individual tables covered in pink and centered with pink tapers garlanded with ivy.

Miss Johnson was wearing a summer frock of mint organza. At this time the bridal couple exchanged gifts and presented gifts to their attendants.

The guests included with the young couple were Miss Sandra Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Phillips, Jr., Miss Sonya Franks, Miss Carol Rhodes, Earl Ingram, Harold Peterson, Miss Lilah Rabun, Miss Jimmie Willett, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Phillips, Miss Sheila Ham, Mr. and Mrs. David Corley, Mrs. Ruth Brazil, Mrs. G. A. O'Neal, Mrs. Edna Sackett, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson.

Earlier in the week Miss Johnson and Mr. Phillips were honored at a dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Windsor in their home in Mer Rouge. Summer garden flowers trimmed the reception rooms and the dinner table was centered with a miniature bride doll with decorated candles at either side. Bridal place cards marked places for Miss Johnson and Mr. Dan Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Dub Phillips, Mrs. Amy Mrs. Bonnie Porch, Miss Jeanne and Clifford Porch, and John Windsor.

A coke party honored Miss Johnson last Saturday given by Mrs. Ruth Brazil, Mrs. Lloyd Gill and Miss Jane Gill, in the home of Mrs. Brazil.

Pink and gray summer flowers decorated the house and serving table. Mrs. G. A. O'Neal assisted the hostesses in serving.

The guests other than the honoree were Miss Johnnie Phillips, Miss Elizabeth Struben, Mrs. Beth Corley, Miss Sonya Franks, Mrs. Pat Ham, Mrs. Bertha McCormick, Mrs. C. C. Franks, Mrs. C. W. Allen, Mrs. Ottis Scott, Mrs. Lella O'Neal, Mrs. Virginia Currey, Mrs. Vashti B. Ham, Miss Sandra Johnson, Miss Anna Johnson, Mrs. Lavenia Johnson.

3rd Birthday Is Celebrated

Emily Baine's third birthday was celebrated recently with a party in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Fiske, in Oak Grove.

Miss Marilyn Oldenburg Is Feted At Prenuptial Party

Among the prenuptial parties honoring Miss Marilyn Oldenburg this week was a tea shower given by Miss Jane Blanchard in her home on Harrison.

Greeting guests at the door was Miss Merilyn Magnon. Receiving with the hostess and honoree was Mrs. John Oldenburg, the bride-elect's mother.

Picturesquet bouquets of American beauty roses were placed at points of interest throughout the party rooms.

A white lace cloth overlaid the tea table which was centered with a round arrangement of American beauty roses and flanked by white tapers in crystal holders.

Miss Betty Hand presided at the punch service. Assisting in serving were Miss Shirley Drone and Miss Kathy Oldenburg.

Miss Oldenburg chose for the party a pink cotton and silk model with white accessories. A white corsage of tiny mums and tuberoses complemented her ensemble.

The hostess was wearing a beige princess style cotton with lace trim.

Daniel States Yarborough Can't Increase Benefits

By UNITED PRESS

U. S. Sen. Price Daniel said Friday that Ralph Yarborough, his opponent in the governor's runoff, can't give old age pensioners a $3-a-month increase without violating the Texas constitution and state and federal laws.

Yarborough, meanwhile, charged that "out-of-state-owned big gas pipeline companies and the big oil importing companies" are "the bottomless money bags" financing Daniel's campaign.

"I am fighting with my back to the wall and it is a fight for the people of Texas against the most ruthless spoils system ever imposed on the people of Texas," Yarborough said at Lubbock.

"I want the vote on Aug. 25 to be a real, clear-cut indication of how Texans feel, and I am confident that we will score at least a 2 to 1 victory," Daniel said in a television speech broadcast statewide from Dallas.

He renewed his segregation pledge that "as governor of this state, I'm going to help those local school districts where the people want to keep their separate but equal schools."

". . . No man can give a $30-across-the-board increase to old age pensioners because that is in violation of our state constitution, federal and state laws," he said.

"But we can raise our pensions up in accordance with the cost of living increase."

Yarborough also held regional meetings in Amarillo, Lubbock and Tyler. He will close out his second week of campaigning with a rally Saturday night in Lufkin.

Earlier on Saturday, he will campaign at Henderson, Rusk, Alto, Palestine, Fairfield and Crockett, in East Texas.

Daniel will campaign Saturday in Waxahachie, Corsicana, Wortham, Mexia, Groesbeck and Waco.

Candidate for attorney general Will Wilson campaigned in Georgetown, Belton and Temple. He said the issue in the attorney general's race "is the same as it was in the first Democratic primary — qualifications."

He is opposed by McLennan county District Attorney Tom Moore.

Department Of Defense Rejects Tax Benefit Writ

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10—UP—The Defense Department has rejected an application by Jones & Laughlin Steel Co. for tax benefits on its proposed $250-million steel plant in Houston, Tex., government officials said Friday.

The application is being referred to the Interior and Commerce Departments for their recommendations.

The company has requested authorization for a rapid tax write-off on grounds that the tubular steel plant is essential to the defense mobilization program.

The program permits firms to write off all or part of their construction costs when computing taxes, over a five year period instead of the usual 20 to 25 years. This has the effect of reducing income taxes on such projects in the first five years.

Government officials said the Defense Department feels the plant does not qualify as an industrial facility essential for direct military procurement.

The Commerce and Interior Departments are being asked whether the plant is needed to expand production of seamless steel pipe, particularly for the petroleum industry.

Anyone with average intelligence, a good cookbook and practice can learn to cook well.

All Wives Should Have Knowledge Of Nutrition

I do not know whether or not your husband in food as much as more young women know how to you can without lowering your cook today than did in the past. standards of good nutrition.

Whatever the truth may be concerning this there are still lots of girls who marry without the slightest idea of how to prepare food.

This isn't too serious because anyone with average intelligence, a good cookbook and practice, can learn to cook well. Of course it would be much better for the groom if his bride did not have to practice on him. Cooking skill seems especially important today when very few young couples can afford any help.

However, the thing which is most distressing is the lack of knowledge of nutrition. In the hands of the wife lie not only the health and vitality of her family but emotional values as well. A man whose diet lacks important food elements is very likely to be touchy and hard to live with. Food which is appetizing and attractively served in a harmonious atmosphere and yet contains the essential food values, goes a long way toward building a happy home. Without some study of nutrition and psychology it is difficult for a woman to realize the importance of the food she serves her family.

The most vital thing is to be sure that your menus give you and your family all of the elements essential for fine health. After that cater to the tastes of

The husband and wife may have greatly different tastes in food. As in so many cases in marriage, compromise seems best here. Why not have at least one favorite dish for each of you at each meal. With a little effort you can each cultivate the taste of the other.

Not only are young brides lacking in a knowledge of nutrition but many women who have been married for years know little or nothing about food, a subject which is so important to the well being, happiness and success of their husbands and children.

There is a tremendous amount of material about nutrition. Why not spend a few hours a week at your local library or buy a few books on this subject?

If you would like to have my leaflet "Vitamin Defense" send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 37 to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Eight Seriously Burned As Blast Rips German Ship

LEWES, Del., Aug. 10—UP—Crewmen were burned seriously Friday when an explosion ripped the engine room of the German freighter S. S. Heidberg in lower Delaware Bay.

The blast sent a flash of fire across the engine room but it did not spread to other sections of the 277-foot vessel, bound for Philadelphia with a cargo of iron ore.

It was reported at first that 10 crewmen were killed and 12 injured, but Coast Guard Cmdr. Roderick Edwards of the Port of Philadelphia, said a check with Capt. Heihz Nauersberger revealed a casualty list of only eight burned.

The injured were taken from the 1,595-ton Heildberg by four Coast guard vessels sent to the scene at the first inkling of trouble. They were admitted to Beebe hospital which dscribed them as "badly burned."

The injured were: Chief Engineer Wolf Gangshurr, 2nd Engineer Herbert Gueldener, 3rd Egineer Curt Uhlig, engineer assistants Werner Ramm and Juergen Schwittner, oilers Paul Goellnitz and Helmut Kaphingst, and cook Alfred Bradt. Their home towns were not available immediately.

The German vessel was never in any danger of sinking and the Coast Guard reported her "safely anchored." She was unable to move under her own power.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—

- Real Family Spirit
- Nosy Girl Friend
- What To Call Mother-In-Law

By DOROTHY DIX

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: We are a poor family, but have brought our children up the best way we knew. We've always been church members, have provided a comfortable, though not luxurious, home for our five children and have always had their confidence. In spite of all this, our 17-year-old daughter became pregnant by a college student she dated a few times. Marriage is out of the question.

At present my husband is working in a state several hundred miles from our home and we are with him. We took our daughter to a local doctor, who advised us to leave her here to have the baby. He offered to put the child out for adoption in exchange for taking care of the hospital bill and his services.

I don't like the idea. I prefer to go home, put her in the hands of our family doctor and take our chances with the people we know. Furthermore, I doubt if she'd be willing to give up the baby. What is the best course?

Mrs. T.

DEAR MRS. T.: I wish I could have printed your letter in full. It expressed so well the wonderful family spirit that will stick by a member in trouble, giving the fullest measure of material and spiritual support.

I agree that leaving your daughter alone at this time is not the thing to do. Furthermore, this doctor's suggestions are unethical and illegal. If your daughter does want her baby adopted, she should work through an accredited adoption agency. If she is, as she seems to be, opposed to adoption, no pressure should be brought to force the issue. I note that you are agreeable to keeping the child and certainly you deserve the highest praise for your co-operation. Your daughter should be brought home and your family doctor's advice should be followed. I'm sure your confidence in neighbors and friends is not misplaced and that they, too, will be understanding.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: My parents are divorced and I live with my mother, who is not too well off. My best girl friend comes from a prosperous family, and she always asks such personal questions as, "Why doesn't your mother get married again?" "Why doesn't your father support you?" "Why can't you afford better clothes?" Should I drop her?

Jane M.

DEAR JANE: Drop her, like a hot potato. She isn't interested in you as a person. Life is too short to tolerate friends with whom one cannot be at ease.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I've been engaged to a wonderful man for four months. My mother says I should call his mother "Mom," or "Mother." I don't think I should until I'm married. Right now I call her by her first name.

Ernestine

DEAR ERNESTINE: Your mother is right, though the decision is really up to your prospective mother-in-law. Calling the older woman by her first name is definitely wrong, unless it is by special request. Ask your fiance to help you solve this problem.

Absentee Voting Deadline Today On Bond Issue

Absentee voting today will be a two sided affair. The absentee balloting for the property owners on the bond election will close today at noon R. Dean Farr, Ouachita parish clerk of court said yesterday and the voting for the two seats on the pairsh school board will open today and remain open for a week.

The parish wide election to be held Tuesday is for the bond issue to sustain the parish library and only property owners can vote on this issue Farr said.

The request for the additional money for the library has been approved by a number of civic clubs in the parish. The purpose of the new tax is to provide for the expansion and improvement of the parish library system, through the construction of new buildings and the purchase of additional bookmobiles so the rural areas of the parish may have better library service.

The second election to be held Aug. 21, is the parish school board race with the runoffs being in wards three and five. In ward three Fred McVay and W. G. Worley are seeking the one seat and in the ward Five (West Monroe) race, E. H. Busbice is opposed by the incumbent, C. G. Wall Jr.

The clerk's office said that absentee voting will be from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and until noon on Saturday Aug. 18.

Bumble Bee Sting Leads To Foot Loss

WINNSBORO, Aug. 10 (Special) —A 44-year-old Ft. Necessity Negro—Floyd Smith—lost his right foot Wednesday when a bumble bee stung him while driving a tractor, causing him to leap from the machine into a "bush-hog" blade attached to the back of the tractor.

Smith was reported to be doing well in a Winnsboro hospital following the amputation Wednesday morning. His foot was badly mangled. The bee stund him on the toe.

Ouachita Valley Scouts In Camp

Arriving safely at Philmont Scout Ranch near Cimmaron, New Mexico yesterday at noon, 25 Boy Scouts from the Ouachita Valley Council are presently being trained for camping in the wilds of the 127,000-acre ranch.

The Northeast Louisiana Scouts will undergo a four-day basic training session at Cimarroncito, one of three base camps on the gigantic ranch.

A 12-day outing on the trails of the bear and deer infested mountains will follow the training session, where basic trail skills are reviewed.

James W. Walters, camping and activities director for the Council from West Monroe, is serving as contingent director for the group. He is being assisted by C. E. Bamburg, institutional representative for Troop 23 of West Monroe.

Grizzly Bear Nears Extinction

WASHINGTON — Once the terror of both man and beast, the mighty grizzly bear today needs protection itself.

Scarcely heard of until 1807 when Lewis and Clark returned from their expedition to the Pacific, King Grizzly reigned throughout the west for many years. Indians, armed only with bows and arrows, rarely challenged his supremacy. Such was the Indians' awe of the beasts that any early frontiersman who felled a grizzly wore its claws around his neck as a badge of unexcelled courage.

As guns improved and as the price of pelts increased, however, killing bears became commonplace. Today, says the National Geographic Society, they are nearly extint in this country.

Outside Alaska, the animal's last stronghold, only about 700 remain in the United States — mainly in Glacier and Yellowstone National Parks. The bears are still legal game in Montana and Wyoming beyond the parks. But in Colorado, Idaho and Washington, the only other states reporting grizzlies, they are protected.

Though the big bears have maimed and killed people, authorities agree that their reputation for ferocity is unfair. Lewis and Clark slew many but never were attacked. More than one hunter, following the adage — "Leave him alone and he'll leave you alone" — has told of waking up to find a grizzly stepping gently over him. One woodsman tamed a grizzly so successfully that the two hunted, slept and ate together.

Seldom as large as imagined, the males of the species average about 500 pounds, the females, 400. The reported half - ton monsters, it has been said, "are not found inhabiting the same range of country as Fairbanks' scales."

Grizzlies nevertheless are considerably larger than the more common black bears that roam mainland parks and woods. A black bear begs handouts. It also climbs trees. The grizzly does neither. It is further recognizable by its grizzled, silver - tipped coat, by the maned hump on its back, its dished - in face, and long, almost straight pitchfork front claws.

A grizzly can outrun a man, and it takes a good horse to catch one. As strong as any animal, it has been known to drag a steer or buffalo a half mile or more. Theodore Roosevelt once saw a bear making off with a huge carcass. Somehow, the bear lost its grip and somersaulted over. It made him so angry, he hauled off and whacked the carcass.

Almost as demonstrative as apes, grizzlies howl and bawl when hurt. They will roar with rage, yet coast down snowbanks with innocent, childish glee. A mother's affection for her cubs is unbounded. She sits, like a human mother, and feeds her little one with her paws. In serving salmon, she reserves the choicest bits for junior.

Mother bruin, however, spanks freely. Any youngster that strays from the party gets a swift cuff—or worse, gets captured. One cub snared by hunters was carried off seven miles, inside a bag on horseback. At camp, he was placed inside a steel cage and chained. That very night his mother found him. She beat off a pack of dogs, tore through the cage, ripped the chain, and marched the young grizzly back home.

Business Outlook In Franklin Area Reported Bright

WINNSBORO, Aug. 10(Special) —Business in Franklin Parish should be looking up this fall with the Sustan Garmets, Inc. pilot plant now producing 500 jackets daily, and approximately 48,000 to 60,000 bales of cotton being predicted for the coming harvest season.

Franklin farmers, who planted about 56,000 acres in cotton this season, are expected to produce the greatest amount of cotton in the parish black land areas.

Ridge cotton is looking as well as last year's crop, according to a survey made of bankers, cotton buyers, ginners and farmers. Franklin produced 54,000 bales last year.

The new Winnsboro garment factory, which has been in operation for several months, has moved its cutting equipment to the J. W. McLemore Warehouse building in an expansion move.

Driver Is Charged Following Accident

James M. Roberston, 25-year-old West Monroe man, has been charged with reckless driving by the State police after he lost control of his auto and wrecked it in West Monroe yesterday morning at 6:45 a.m.

Roberston, 808 Johnson St., lost control of his auto on a curve on Smith Street. He was treated in the St. Francis for minor injuries.

Negro Boy Scouts To Complete First Camping Session

Some 102 Negdo Boy Scouts from the Ouachita Valley Council will end the first camping session at Camp Albert Britton near Calhoun today at noon.

The Scouts have been in camp since Monday, camping and swimming and learning the various crafts of Scouting.

Another army of campers will move into camp Monday, ending the summer's session next Saturday at noon.

Chief Executive Jack E. Pankey served as camp director this week with James T. Simpson, Jr., Field Executive, replacing him next week.

Five Scouts from the Camp Ki-Ro-Li junior staff are also serving on the Camp Britton staff. They include Glen Wayne Colvin, Jonesboro, Terry Gunn, Alexandria, Johnny Tettleton, Farmerville Tommy Armitage, Bastrop, and Charles Snyder, Bastrop.

Texas Official Wants Two New Commissioners

SAN ANGELO, Tex., Aug. 10—UP—Harry T. Garmon, 60, asked the city secretary Friday for a recall petition asking for an election to recall two city commissioners.

Garmon said that he wants to recall Commissioners Ed. M. Handley and Louis O. Seibert "in the interest of good government" and to break up a three-man clique on the five-man commission which he doesn't feel was serving the best interests of citizens who elected them.

Mayor H. E. McCulloch was identified by Garmon as the third member of the clique. Garmon announced he would seek the recall of the two commissioners after the county pulled out of a joint bridge and welfare project because the county commissioners accused the city commissioners of "inconsistency and lack of co-operation."

For an Englishman, an auto shock absorber is a damper.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
Is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Funeral Services Given For Victim Of Car Accident

JONESBORO, Aug. 10 (Special) — Funeral services for James Bond, 19-year-old airman of Jonesboro, who died early Wednesday in a local hospital from injuries received in a car accident, will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday in the Southside Baptist church in Jonesboro.

The Rev. Rubin Hammond will conduct the services. Interment will follow in the Jonesboro cemetery under direction of Edmond's Funeral home.

Military graveside services will be held, with airmen of Barksdale Air Force Base, Shreveport, serving as pallbearers.

Bond, an ex-high school football star, apparently fell asleep about 4:45 a.m. Tuesday in his car four miles north of Quitman. The car crashed, and Bond's neck was broken, according to physicians.

Survivors include four brothers, Milburn DeWayne Bond, Herman C. Bond, Ray Bond and Johnny Bond, all of Jonesboro; one sister, Miss Beatrice Bond of Jonesboro; and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bond, of Jonesboro.

Polio Cases Scarce Around West Carroll

OAK GROVE, Aug. 10 (Special) —Four hundred polio shots were given in West Carroll during the month of July, according to the West Carroll parish health director, Dr. W. K. Evans. No polio cases have been reported in the parish this year.

The health unit here expects to move into its new brick veneer building early next week. The building was constructed at a cost of $34,900.

Monroe Ends Losing Streak To Beat Alexandria, 5-4

Error With Bases Loaded In Ninth Fashions Triumph

Shortstop Kanehl struck out with the base loaded in the ninth inning but it won the ball game for Monroe as Alexandria's rookie catcher J. C. Markham missed the third strike and Frank Kabbes romped home with the winning run in a 5-4 victory that snapped an 11-game losing streak for the Sports.

Jerry Neal, who relieved Bob Bonebrake in the second inning, was the winning pitcher over Fred Stegal in a duel of one-run frames that saw the game tied four times and Monroe never ahead until the final frame.

The Aces and Sports close their current series tonight at 8 o'clock at Legion Memorial Stadium, after which the Sports hit the four-day "New Iberia lull," returning to action next Thursday at Lafayette.

Clyde Gisclair, safe on Morrie Millet's error, came in with the opening run of the game for Alexandria in the first inning. Ed Richardson walked and was forced by Joe Dye, setting Gisclair up at third to work a double steal with Dye. Gisclair scoring.

Adolph Hintze, Monroe's new second baseman obtained when Hugh Craig quit the club, tripled in his first home park appearance and scored on a wild pitch to knot the score in Monroe's half of the opening frame.

The Aces counted one more in the second when Marty Delaune and Rene DeHondt walked, and J. C. Markham, the 17-year-old catcher working in the place of Manager "Red" Smith who fractured his left arm in the Wednesday night Aces - Sports action in Alexandria, singled Delaune across. Roy Mantle, fielding Markham's drive, threw DeHondt out trying for third. When Stegal also singled, Neal went to Bonebrake's relief, and John Yanchura hit into a double play.

Monroe tied the score again at 2-2, in the fourth. Keith Mitchell and Joe Miller hit successive singles. Jim Johnston's long fly to center advanced Mitchell who scored when Millet forced Miller.

Gisclair doubled and scored on Dye's single, putting the Aces up front again in the top of the fifth, but the Sports tied the game a third time in their half of the same frame when Rod Kanehl's double counted Neal who had singled.

Three errors sent Yanchura all the way around in the seventh to put the Aces ahead again. He grounded to Millet whose throw was in the dirt to first, Yanchura romping to second. Neal threw wild on an attempted pickoff, sending the runner to third. Neal fanned, Gisclair and Richardson, then walked Dye. With the double steal on, Neal cut off Kabbes' throw to second and threw to third. Millet, throwing to the plate to stop Yanchura, hit the base runner in the back instead, and Yanchura scored.

Monroe tied the score for the fourth time in the eighth. Kanehl beat out a bunt and raced all the way to third on Stegal's bad throw to first. A single by Mitchell scored Kanehl.

Frank Kabbes led off the ninth for Monroe with a single. Neal sacrificed, Carr got a double on a Texas League looper behind second, setting Kabbes up at third. Hintze was intentionally passed, loading the bases with one out. Kanehl fanned, but Markham missed the third strike, and Kabbes scored. Stegal, racing in to the plate to take the throw when Markham recovered the ball, then threw the ball over the grandstand and out of the park in disgust.

Pros Blast Stars, 26 To 0

BY ED SAINSBURY

CHICAGO, Aug. 10—UP—Lou "The Toe" Groza kicked four field goals, all more than 30 yards, Friday night to set a new game record and lead the Cleveland Browns to a 26-0 triumph over the 1956 College All Stars before 75,000 fans. It was Cleveland's second win in three tries against the collegians in this annual spectacle, the 14th win for the pros in 23 games, the seventh time for coslegians have been shut out in the series, and well earned revenge for the Browns' for last year's 30-27 loss to the college boys.

The All Stars simply were outclassed.

They made only five first downs during the match and two of them came the first time they had possession of the ball, one on an 11 - yard pass by Michigan State's Earl Morrall to Harold Burnine of Missouri and the other on Morrall's 10 yard run.

Thereafter the pros took over, boosted by Groza's 14 points for the night. It was the second high individual scoring effort in the history of the game, surpassed by Don Hutson's 19 for Green Bay against the Collegians in 1940.

Last year Tad Weed of Ohio State kicked three field goals and three extra points for the individual field goal record while in 1939 Ward Cuff booted one field goal and Ken Strong two to spark the New York Giants to a 9-0 win, setting the team field goal mark.

Sledge, whose expert faking and engineering of the first half North drives to touchdowns, was voted the game's outstanding back. He hit three of six passes for 42 yards and gained 17 more rushing.

McDaniel got 92 yards, Spikes 58 and Lasater 50 as the North piled up 228 yards rushing and 120 passing to the South's 118 on the ground and 72 through the air.

Bobby Lackey of Weslaco came on the last half to save the South from utter disgrace with an amazing passing and running exhibition that netted third and fourth period touchdowns, one on a one-yard aerial to Rene Ramirez of Hebbronville.

But, his South team was trailing by three touchdowns by the time he got things underway.

The North trumpeted its intentions from the opening kickoff when it marched 75 yards, all but 15 of it on the ground, for the first touchdown, a two-yard jaunt by Spikes.

McDaniel, who picked up 92 yards in 19 carries for the night, punched four yards for the first of his two touchdowns at the end of a 55-year march in the second period, and added another in the final quarter from one yard out after a 40-year North drive.

Lasater plunged three yards for a third period score and Robinson, a converted halfback who won outstanding lineman honors as an end, hauled down a 17-yard bullet pass from Meredith early in the fourth period for the other North score. Robinson also converted twice.

Lackey Leading South Gainer

Lackey only hit two of seven passes, but they were good for 50 yards and one touchdown, while he was the South's leading ground gainer with 42 yards in six carries — the game's best average of seven yards per carry.

The North line, yielding several pounds per man to the South, opened gaping holes at both guards manned by Sam Caudle of Abilene and Frank Holey of Dallas and at right tackle where Arvie Martin of Dallas held forth.

Tackle James Shillingburg of Kermit was the winners' outstanding lineman on defense, while Joe Glass of Baytown was one of the few sparkles in the South line.

Score by periods:

North	6	6	7	13	—32
South	0	0	7	6	—13

Touchdowns: North — Spikes (2, plunge); McDaniel 2 (4, plunge and 1, plunge); Lasater (3, run); Robinson (17, pass). South — LeBoeuf (1 plunge); Ramirez (38, pass-run). Conversions: North — Robinson 2. South —Lackey.

Miss Creed Beats Defending Champ In Western Final

CHICAGO, Aug. 10 (AP)—Clifford Ann Creed, 17-year-old high school senior of Opelousas, La., today won the 30th women's Western Junior golf tourney with a 3 and 2 victory over defending champion Jo Ann Gunderson of Seattle, Wash.

Miss Creed was the meet medalist, winning last Monday's qualifying round with a 1-over-women's-par 77 at the Flossmoor Country Club.

Miss Creed got off to a fine start against her 17-year-old rival, scooting to a 5-up lead at the nine-hole turn with a 2-over-par 35 card.

The two girls halved the 10th and 11th holes with par figures. Miss Gunderson rallied to take the 12th and 13th holes with birdies to whittle her deficit to three holes.

Miss Creed won the 14th with a par four, but the defending champion hung on with a hole-winning birdie on the 15th.

They halved the 16th with bogey fives, which gave the match to Miss Creed.

Mantle Doubles For Yanks To Defeat Baltimore, 5-4

NEW YORK, Aug. 10 (AP)—Mickey Mantle's two-out, ninth-inning double drove in Billy Martin from third base to give New York's American league leading Yankees a 5-4 victory over Baltimore tonight.

The winning blow, Mantle's second double of the game, came off reliefer Billy Loes, now 1-5. Martin had singled with two out and chugged all the way to third when the ball got past Tito Francona in rightcenter.

New York, retaining an 8½-game lead over second place Boston, trailed until the seventh against starter Ray Moore, who has yet to beat the Yankees in five lifetime decisions. A walk and singles by Martin and Yogi Berra tied it in the seventh.

The Orioles took a 2-0 lead in the first against Whitey Ford on George Kell's single and Bob Nieman's 12th home run—an inside-the-park job on a tremendous 466-foot clout to center field. Dick Williams also homered for the Orioles.

Tom Sturdivant took the decision in relief for a 10-6 record.

Marilyn Bell Fails In Her Latest Swim

VICTORIA, B.C., Aug. 10 (AP)—Marilyn Bell failed today in an attempt to swim the Strait of Juan de Fuca.

The 18-year-old Toronto girl was pulled from the chilly waters of the strait nine hours and 50 minutes after entering it here 6:46.30 a.m. CST to try to swim 18.3 miles to Port Angeles, Wash.

It was the first failure Marilyn had experienced in long-distance swimming. In 1954 she was the first woman in the 26-mile Atlantic City swim and later became the first person to swim Lake Ontario.

Last year she swam the English Channel.

Marilyn was taken from the water today about 5½ miles from Port Angeles, Wash., her destination.

Winnsboro Names Top Sportsmen In Boys' League

WINNSBORO, Aug. 10 (Special)—Danny Magee of the Independents was named the outstanding sportsman of the local Little Boys' League here tonight.

Outstanding sportsmen for the other five clubs in the circuit were Jerry Wilkinson, Blackie's Lion Oil; W. L. Robbins, Franklin Tractor; Joe Henry, V.F.W.; John Calhoun, Jitney Jungle; and Kermit Burnside, Northeast Louisiana Co-Op.

In a post-season game featured as an attraction to the presentations, the Ward 10 club of Rapides Parish downed the Winnsboro All-Stars 8-6.

Joe Gravelle, vice-president of the Winnsboro Jaycees, presented the awards.

SOLUNAR TABLES

The schedule of Solunar periods printed below has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times if you wish to find the best spot that each day has to offer.

Pirates Victorious Over Giants, 3-2; Lose Make-Up Tilt

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 10 (AP)—Bill Virdon's 7th homer of the year in the eighth inning tonight gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 3-2 triumph after the New York Giants recorded a 7-6 victory in a game that had been suspended July 1 after eight innings.

New York had taken the lead in the nightcap on Dusty Rhodes' eighth homer of the season.

Redlegs Move Into Second With 8-1 Brave Triumph

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 10 (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs, aided by Ed Bailey's grand slam homerun, vaulted into second place in the National League tonight with an 8-1 victory over the Milwaukee Braves. The triumph put the Redlegs one game behind Milwaukee and a half game ahead of Brooklyn, now in third place on tonights loss to Philadelphia.

Bailey's homer in the eighth over the right field wall, his 20th of the season, marked the first time he had grand slammed during his major league career. The blow came off Bob Trowbridge, who had relieved loser Ray Crone at the start of the inning.

Donovan Hurls Six-Hitter For Chicago Win, 6-1

DETROIT, Aug. 10 (AP)—Right-hander Dick Donovan pitched the Chicago White Sox to their fifth victory in a row tonight, limiting the Detroit Tigers to six hits in a 6-1 triumph.

It was Chicago's sixth win at Briggs stadium without a setback.

Al Keline's seventh-inning homer his 23rd, ruined Donovan's shutout. Nellie Fox hit a seventh-inning home run for the White Sox.

Chicago opened up a 1-0 lead in the fourth on a walk, Minnie Minoso's single and a sacrifice fly. The Sox broke the contest open with four runs in the eighth off Tiger starter Paul Foytack. Chicago collected six straight singles off Foytack and reliefer Al Aber and added a sacrifice fly that produced the four scores.

Lightburn Enjoys Revenge With Win Over Zulueta

NEW YORK, Aug. 10—UP—Lightweight contender Ludwig Lighburn of British Honduras, savagely seeking revenge, turned the tables on Orlando Zulueta of Cuba Friday night with a smashing attack to the body and head that earned him a unanimous 10-round decision in their return bout.

Young Lighburn, incensed because Zulueta had won an unpopular decision over him in the same Madison Square Garden ring on July 13 and dropped him from seventh to 10th in the lightweight ratings, tried his best to knock out the Cuban.

Lightburn, weighing three more pounds than last month, took advantage of his weight and his youth and his superior punching power to give Orlando one of the most severe batterings of his career, although the rugged Cuban never hit the deck.

The three ring officials favored Lighburn as follows: Referee Al Berl, 6-3-1; Judge Nick Gamboli, 6-3-1, and Judge Harold Barnes, 9-1. The United Press agreed 8-1-1.

Frank Frisch Critically Ill; Heart Condition Bad

NEW ROCHELL, N. Y., Aug. 10 (AP)—UP—Frankie Frisch, former star baseball player and manager, was reported in critical condition Friday at New Rochelle hospital.

Frisch, who has been serving as a sportscaster for a New York television station in recent years, suffered a heart attack following the New York Giants-Philadelphia Phillies game Thursday at the Polo Grounds. He was taken to the hospital Thursday night.

A member of Baseball's Hall of Fame, the 57-year-old Frisch played in the major leagues for 19 years, playing every infield position but first base. He broke in with the Giants after graduating from Fordham University in 1919 and earned the nickname of "the Fordham Flash."

He was traded to the St. Louis Cardinals in 1927 and played with the famed "Gashouse Gang" of Pepper Martin, Joe Medwick and the Dean brothers, Dizzy and Daffy, until 1937. He served as playing manager of the Cardinals from 1933 through 1937.

He retired as a player in 1937 but remained as the Cardinals' manager in 1938. He later managed the Pittsburgh Pirates (1940-46) and the Chicago Cubs (1949-51.

Lockman's Triple Shoots Cardinals Past Bruins, 4-3

CHICAGO, Aug. 10 (AP)—Whitey Lockman's eighth inning triple scored singling Wally Moon with what proved the winning run as the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Chicago Cubs 4-3, before a ladies' day crowd of 14,953 today. Wilmer Mizell, with eighth inning help from Larry Jackson, was credited with his 11th victory.

Bob Boyd Permitted To Rejoin Baltimore

Baltimore, Aug. 10(AP)—Bob Boyd, injured first baseman of the Baltimore Orioles, left by train for New York this afternoon to join his club, opening a four-game series with the yankees.

Boyd, fractured a bone in his left elbow on May 20 on what appeared to be a routeine toss. He was put on the disabled list after x-rays dicslosed the crack.

Dr. Edmond McDonnell gave Boyd the green light to lob the ball and to take batting practice, but told him not to throw across the infield. He would not estimate how soon Boyd could play.

Boyd was having his best year before he was benched by the injury. In 70 trips, he had 25 hits for a .357 average.

Ohio Girl Marks Record Round For Tam Competition

CHICAGO, Aug. 10 (AP)—Anne Richardson of Columbus, Ohio, set a women's amateur course record of 6-under-par 70 today to grab a six-stroke lead midway in the "World" Golf Tournament at Tam O'Shanter.

The tall, 20-year-old blonde who will enter Ohio State University this fall, knocked one stroke off the credited amateur mark of 71 set by Wiffi Smith in 1954.

Miss Richardson's round of 34-36 against the standard 38-38—76 gave her a 36-hole total of 149. Jackie Yates of Honolulu was next at 155 with a second round of 39-37—76.

Carole Jo Kabler, 18, of Roseburg, Ore., drove into contention at 156 by duplicating Miss Yates' card.

Regular Job Might Make Adcock Home Run Leader

By DION HENDERSON

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 10 (AP)— If the Friday night debating society runs out of genteel topics before adjournment, how about a little speculation on what might happen to National League home run records — if Joe Adcock could get a full time job with the Milwaukee Braves?

At the moment, the soft talking but hard hitting Milwaukee slugger is second with 27 homers in the senior loop's four-master derby, behind Brooklyn's Duke Snider.

But Snider works regularly, and Adcock has played a shade less than two-thirds of the time so far this season.

As a matter of fact, the large man from Louisiana is only a hair behind Mickey Mantle's sensational American League pace, and before today's games the Yankee whacker was 11 home runs ahead of Babe Ruth's 1927 record rate. The Bambino hit 60.

Mantle has hit 39. But he's been at bat 379 times. That figures out to be roughly one home run out of just under 10 at bats. Adcock has been up 273 times. One home run, that is, for each 10 1-9 times at bat. Snider, up 372 times, turns out to have a record for one-out-of-12.

Adcock's part-time status on first base for the Milwaukees has been described as a "defensive measure" by Manager Fred Haney—and by ex-manager Charlie Grimm before him. Frank Torre has been taking over the bag along about the sixth or seventh inning all season.

Torre, be it noted, has been at bat 129 times. Home runs: 0. Batting average, .256.

And here's what has raised a few eyebrows around County Stadium. Torre, the nice kid who's supposed to be lifting the Braves defense in those tough late innings, is doing a good job at it.

But so is Adcock. Up to Aug. 1, Torre was the second - ranking first baseman in the league with a fielding percentage of .994. But Adcock was fourth, with .991.

Since Aug. 1, Torre has made his third error of the year, while Adcock stood pat on five, while handling nearly twice as many chances.

Discussion, as the fellows with the gavel say, may now follow.

49 Of 93 Players Under Par During 2nd Round Firing

CHICAO, Aug. 10 (AP)—Cary Middlecoff and Bo Wininger topped a par - smashing frolic today through the second round of Tam O'Shanter's $101,200 men's pro "World" Golf Tournament with 36-hole totals of 135, nine under regulation.

Wininger, the Odessa, Tex., pro who led the first round with a 7-under 65, dropped a six-foot birdie 3 putt on the last hole for a 34-36—70.

Middlecoff, the 1956 National Open champion and second leading money winner of the P.G.A. circuit with $24,132, finished earlier with 35-34—69. He had a hectic front line, 3-stroking three greens.

But he settled down on the back side, dropping 12 and 15-foot birdie putts on the 12th and 13th and parring all others.

Wininger blew good chances to maintain sole possession of the lead with a bogey six on No. 9 after wasting a shot in a trap, and with a bogey five on the 17th after leaving himself short and chipping poorly.

But the two leaders could boast of only a one-stroke edge in the 72-hole romp for Sunday's championship payoff of $50,000.

So fascinated were the pros by golf's greatest money scramble that 49 of them in a field of 93 were under par for the distance.

Crowding Middlecoff and Wininger at 136 were Peter Thomson, Jerry Barber, Pete Cooper, Errie Ball and Ted Kroll.

Ball, a 45-year-old club pro at Oak Park, Ill., fired a 34-36—70 and Kroll, runner-up in the National P.G.A. this year, banged out 34-35—69.

The leathery - faced Cooper, a Floridian whose summer residence is Birmingham, Mich., scored a 36-33—69 on the second round with the help of an eagle three on the 475-yard 10th.

Barber, the 5-5, 137-pound mite from Los Angeles, posted 35-33—68. He scored an eagle three on the 515-yard 15th.

Thomson, 26, winner of the British Open the last three years, fashioned 36-32—68. His great second nine included birdies on the two long holes, an 18-foot putt for three on No. 12 and another birdie three on the 375-yard No. 17 with a nine-iron approach one inch from the cup.

Others on the move in one of the greatest sub-par displays of a major tournament were Johnny Palmer, the 1949 "world" champion and Herman Scharlau, registering from Lemont, Ill. They were locked in the 137 bracket after firing 68 and 69, respectively.

At 139 were Jack Fleck, the 1955 National Open winner, with 68; Ed "Porky" Oliver, with 70; Bob Toski, the 1954 "World" winner, with 70, and Bob Rosburg with a torrid 66.

Wettlaufer Nabs Lead In Amateur For Men At Tam

CHICAGO, Aug. 10 (AP)—Ward Wettlaufer of Buffalo, golf team captain at Hamilton College in Clinton, N.Y., threaded six one-putt greens today for a 35-33—68 and the 36-hole men's amateur lead in the "World" Golf Tournament at Tam O'Shanter.

Wettleufer, 20, drew up at the halfway mark in 143—one stroke under par for the distance—after his great round, fashioned on a total of 30 putts.

In second place with 146 was Al Barkow of Highland Park, Ill., former Tam O'Shanter caddy. He had a 71.

Dean Refram of Medinah, Ill., golf star for Florida Southern University, took over a share of third place with his second straight 74 for 148.

The first round leader, 250-pound Martin Stanovich, faded to a 78 on his home grounds, for 148. Also in this group was Dick Evans of Lake Forest, Ill., former university of Michigan golf captain.

The leaders:

Ward Wettlaufer, Buffalo, N.Y., 75-68—143.
Al Barkow, Highland Park, Ill., 75-71—146.
Dean Refram, Medinah, Ill., 74-74—148.
Martin Stanovich, Niles, Ill., 70-78—148.
Richard Edward Evans, Lake Forest, Ill., 74-74—148.
Phil Lobstein, Brownwood, Tex., 74-75—149.
James Hiskey, Houston, Tex., 82-70—152.
Robert F. Erickson, Chicago, Ill., 78-74—153.
Art Melnikoff, Highland Park, Ill., 74-81—155.

Connie Grob of the Washington Senators has pitched only two seasons in the minor leagues.

Photo Finish For Big 8 Loop In Games Tonight

RUSTON, La., Aug. 10 (Special)—The most hotly contested race in the Big Eight League's 11-year history will need several cameras Saturday night to officially record its photo finish.

Saturday's three - game card marks the completion of the regular 30-game season and just one tiny game is all that separates the top three clubs in this story-book ending.

The front - running Ruston Ramblers, holding a 19-10 record, have already been assured of at least a cinch tie for first place. But both the Bernice Lions and the Homer Oilers—deadlocked for second at 18-11 aplece—also have outside chances to become either a co-champion or a tri-champion.

While Ruston is entertaining the fifth-ranking Bastrop Barons in their sixth and final engagement, Bernice must travel away from home to visit the Minden Red Birds and Homer invades the Springhill Sports' domain.

Minden recently iced away the No. 4 slot plus a defnlite berth in the next week's Shaughnessy playoff opener.

Bastrop (10-19) and Springhill (9-20) will place their baseball gear in moth balls after Saturday's finale.

Since Ruston is the only member of the "big three" that will be enjoying a home park advantage, this factor makes the Ramblers an odds-on favorite to claim undisputed possession of the regular pennant. In addition, Ruston has posted five consecutive wins over Bastrop this season.

On the other hand, Bernice holds a slim 3-2 margin over Minden in five previous contests. This is the same lead that Homer has built against Springhill since the firing first opened in late May.

The congestion became thicker Thursday night when Bernice walloped Ruston, 14-3, and Homer edged Bastrop, 6-5, in a 10-inning struggle.

The semi-final series of the annual playoff feud are scheduled to be inaugurated Monday night, each featured as a 3-of-5 tussle. Then the semi-final victors hook up for a 3-of-5 series for the Shaughnessy title.

Miss Wright Nabs 2nd Round Margin For Feminine Pros

CHICAGO, Aug. 10 (AP)—Mickey Wright, long-hitting golfer from Chula Vista, Calif., maintained her lead today in the $15,000 "world" tournament for women pros with a 36-39—75 second round and a halfway total of 146, 6 under par.

The 21-year-old former Stanford student turned professional two years ago shortly after winning the women's amateur "world" crown here at Tam O'Shanter.

Coupling her 75 with an opening 71 she took a three-stroke lead in the dash for the $6,000 first prize over Betty Jameson of San Antonio and Marlene Bauer Hagge, who totalled 149.

The scores:

Mickey Wright, Chula Vista, Calif., 71-75—146
Betty Jameson, San Antonio, Tex., 73-76—149
Marlene Bauer Hagge, Ashville, N.C., 78-71—149
Marilynn Smith, Bloomfield Twp., Mich., 78-73—151
Kathy Cornelius, Lake Worth, Fla., 75-76—151
Alice Bauer, Sarasota, Fla., 73-78—151
Louise Suggs, Sea Island, Ga., 73-78—151
Betty Bush, Virginia Beach, Va., 77-75—152
Patty Berg, St. Andrews, Ill., 76-76—152
Joyce N. Zieke, Waterford, Wis., 75-77—152
Mary Lena Faulk, Thomasville, Ga., 78-76—154.
Peggy Kirk, Pine Needles, N.C., 76-78—154.
Betty Dodd, Louisville, Ky., 79-75—154
Fay Crocker, Uruguay, 79-75—154
Beverly Hanson, Apple Valley, Calif., 79-76—155
Gloria Armstrong, Oakland, Calif., 78-80—158
Jo Ann Prentice, Birmingham, Ala., 79-79—158
Gloria J. Fecht, Whittier, Calif., 76-84—160
Diane Garrett, Houston, Tex., 76-84—160
Betsy Rawls, Spartanburg, S.C. 78-83—161
Bonnie Randolph, Columbus, Ohio, 83-78—161
Shirley Spork, Highland Park, Ill., 81-81—162
Vonnie Colby, Hollywood, Fla., 85-78—163

Atlantic City Has Strong Opposition For Nashua Today

MAYSLANDING, N. J., Aug. 10—UP—Nashua, the millionaire of the turf, returns to competition on a "redhot spot" Saturday when the bay colored colt takes on eight rivals in the inaugural running of the $100,000 Atlantic City Handicap.

For among the others in the mile and one-eighth race will be Llangollen Farm's Mister Gus, who chased Swaps home in three consecutive stakes races at Hollywood Park and then shipped over the Rockies to beat the best in the Midwest in the recent Arlington Handicap.

In the Inglewood Handicap at Hollywood Park, Mister Gus got a 15-pound pull in the weights and a two length licking; in the American handicap he was weighted 19 pounds less than Swaps but lost by a length and three-quarters; and in the Hollywood Gold Cup, although racing 13 pounds lighter than Swaps, he bowed by two lengths again.

In the Atlantic City Handicap, Nashua carries 129 pounds while Mister Gus starts under 119, getting only a 10-pound break in the weights.

Mister Gus shares second high weight with Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Cind, Calumet Farm's Bardstown, Maine Chance Farm's Jet Action, 117; Sam Tufano's Wise Martin, 115; Darby Dan Farm's Skipper Bill, 115; Woodland Farm's Blue Sparkler; and Christopher T. Chenery's Manotick, 112, complete the field.

Among them these horses have won more than $3 million. Almost half of it was earned by Nashua, the world's leading money winner with $1,236,965 in his bank account.

Jockey Eddie Arcaro rides Nashua, who starts with one less pound than the 130 pound ceiling established for Mr. Millionaire by Leslie B. Combs, head of the syndicate which paid $1,251,200 for Nashua.

The Nashua - Arcaro combination was overnight favorite at 3 to 5 to take the winner's purse of $65,000. The second finisher gets $20,000 with $10,000 going to third and $5,000 to fourth. There were no nomination and starting fees for the race is "by invitation only."

Princess Grace's Dad Turf's 'Man Of Year'

NEW YORK, Aug. 10 (AP)—John B. Kelly, president of the Atlantic City race track and father of Monaco's Princess Grace, today was voted racing's "Man of the Year" by the board of directors of the Jockeys' Guild.

Kelly will be guest of honor at the guild's annual dinner-dance in New York Sept. 29.

Eddie Arcaro, president of the national riders' group will present Kelly with a plague at the dinner.

EAGLES TO START ROOKIE

HERSHEY, Pa., Aug. 10—UP—Joe Miller, 195-pound former University of Cincinnati captain, was the only rookie named to start for the Philadelphia Eagles in their Saturday night exhibition against the Baltimore Colts, Coach Hugh Devore said Miller would start at right halfback on the offensive platoon.

Slate Baseball Draft In Florida On Dec. 3

NEW YORK, Aug. 10 (AP)—Charles Segar, secretary of baseball, announced today that Commissioner Ford Frick had decided to hold the annual player selection meeting at which minor league players are drafted by the majors at Jacksonville, Fla. Monday, Dec. 3.

The draft meeting will precede the minors' annual convention at Jacksonville. The regular winter meetings of the majors will be held at Chicago following the Minors convention.

Stan Musial has played in the most All-Star games — 13.

D'Agata, Macias Title Bout Brews For West Coast

MILAN, Italy, Aug. 10 (AP)—The two rival claimants to the world bantamweight boxing title — Mario D'Agata of Italy and Raoul (Raton) Macias of Mexico — probably will fight in Los Angeles next month to give the division a single undisputed champion.

Macias is recognized as champion by the National Boxing Association, D'Agata is recognized by the European Boxing Federation and in most other countries.

The way for the Los Angeles fight was cleared this week when Robert Cohen of France retired. D'Agata won his title from Cohen and had a contract to give Cohen a rematch in Paris.

Libero Cecchi, D'Agata's manager, said he has firm offers from two rival U. S. promoters for the Macias fight and one deal is virtually set.

The bid D'Agata plans to accept is from Antonio Petronelli of New York, who has offered $50,000 against 35 per cent of the gate plus transportation.

D'Agata won his version of the title from Cohen on June 29. The Italian is a deaf mute, married to a deaf mute. He is a colorful ring figure and a big European drawing card.

Cotton Letter

There was heavy short covering on the opening which touches off open stops and caused prices to rally sharply during the early portion of trading. October and December were in particular good demand with New Orleans interests good buyers. Market eased later under light hedging but persistent trade demand throughout rest of day caused prices to rally substantially from the lows. Commission houses were buying October and December against sale of March and May resulting in widening of the differences as the psychology spreads that the market will show a pattern of strong near months for some time to come. Liverpool advanced 22 to 41 cent points with short covering a strong feature.

The United States Department of Agriculture announced sale this week of 117,754 bales at prices unchanged from the previous sale. Total sales of CCC cotton since January 1 are 3,120,241. Worth Street remains quiet. New crop cotton continues to progress favorably with warm weather particularly in the central belt causing rapid maturity.

Highlights From The Ticker Tape

Stocks managed to finish higher again despite a late selling spree which pared more than two points from the Dow Jones Industrial average. Rails and utilities showed impressive gains.

Cities service oil company has completed Waggoner Wildcat Oil Well in Wilbarger County, Texas. Drilled to total depth of 3863 feet, the well showed 764 barrels of 39.7 gravity in 24 hours.

Imports showed a definite drop—down to $1 billion—or five per cent decrease from May tthrough 10 per cent above June 1955. The drop was a reflection of decreased American buying abroad, mainly of textiles, metals, and residual fuel oil. For the first half of the year, imports rose to a new high of $6.3 billion, or $800 million above the year earlier level.

Steel stock while generally good showed up in the speculative field. This has particular regard to Wheeling Steel.

Eggs were again established in the new lows field at the opening trade on the market. Price levels were downward as much as 60 points on continued liquidation. Cash markets were steady and unchanged in Chicago, while being mixed in New York.

Good moisture over the bean belt caused early selling which was absorbed by common house buting due to firmness in products and exporter buying.

McGraw Electric has completed negotiations for the acquisition of Speed Queen Corporation of Ripou, Wisconsin. The purchase is subject to approval of the Speed - Queen shareholders in a meeting to take place Aug. 28.

The Agriculture Department estimated the corn crop for 1956 at 3,143,779,000 bushels the seventh largest in history.

Wheat is expected to show in at 938,988,000 bushels as compared to last month's 922,262,000 bushels.

The 1956 wheat crop in Texas was estimated at 28,275,000 bushels or increase of 1,131,000 bushels over July forecast.

Kansas wheat scaled in at 144,600,000; Oklahoma, 64,272,000; and Nebraska has a total of 60,051,000.

New York Cotton Futures closed $1.10 higher to 20 cents lower; New Orleans futures were $1.05 higher.

Cotton

New York

NEW YORK, Aug. 10 (AP)—Cotton futures closed 20 cents a bale lower to $1.10 higher today.

The market started firm, but shortly thereafter a brisk trade and commission house buying movement developed and carried prices sharply higher. The trade buying was believed to be against export orders to Spain and Pakistan. Purchases were also credited to be for the account of the textile mills. On the advance, many stop - loss buying orders were uncovered.

Cotton merchants sought to explain the action of the market. There were no physical developments, but some traders thought the strength was due to the failure of hedges to develop. For the past week picking of new crop cotton had expanded, but hedge sales in the futures remained light. Many farmers were reported holding new crop cotton for the government loan or private financing.

The Department of Agriculture announced the sale of 117,754 bales of cotton for export at competitive prices. Sales in this direction, since the first of April a C.C.C official said, have totaled 3,120,241 bales.

The decline in cotton futures occurred in distant positions, but trading in these months was light.

1956 Citrus Crop Outlook Is Good

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10—UP—The Agriculture Department said Friday the outlook for 1956-57 citrus crops is "generally favorable."

In Florida July rainfall was spottin and some non - irrigated groves need moisture. However, prospects as a whole are favorable. Development of Texas citrus was satisfactory during July, Arizona prospects are favorable.

California prospects are favorable as a whole although conditions vary from grove to grove among districts.

The board said the condition of the citrus crop on Aug. 1 was oranges and tangerines 73 per cent, grapefruit 68 per cent, lemons 69 per cent, and limes 80 per cent.

The new turnpike bridge over the Delaware River near Edgley, Pa., required 20,204 tons of steel and 25,000 barrels of cement.

Stock Market In Slow Decline On Small Volume

NEW YORK, Aug. 10 (AP)—The stock market staged a gentle decline today on the smallest volume in nearly three weeks.

It was the narrowest market since July 2, with only 1,123 issues traded.

Pivotal issues fell from fractions to around 2 points or so except for international oils whose losses stretched nearly to 6 points. A few selected issues gained.

The market's advance today snapped a string of three straight daily rises since Monday's sharp sell-off.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell $1.00 to $189.50, with the industrials down $1.40, the rails down $1.10 and the utilities down 20 cents.

Volume totaled 2,040,000 shares compared with 2,550,000 yesterday and was the lowest since July 23 when turnover was 1,970,000 shares.

Corporate bonds were lower in slow trading.

U.S. government bonds eased in dull transactions over-the-counter.

Reshuffle Of U. S. NATO Manpower Is Contemplated

WASHINGTON, Aug 10—UP—Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, supreme allied commander in Europe, said Friday his NATO command is making a review to see whether "surplus units" can be eliminated from its combat divisions.

Gruenther, who arrived Friday for manpower talks with President Eisenhower, added however that prospective changes do not necessarily mean a cut in the overall number of troops.

He said NATO (The North Atlantic Treaty Organization) has "got to have a shield" of ground forces in Europe as a deterrent to Russian aggression. Pending his conference with the President, he refused to commit himself on whether U. S. or British troops in NATO should be reduced. But he said the size of the force is "always open to question."

Gruenther in the past has opposed any withdrawal of U. S. troops from the continent. He aired his view as recently as last June when he was visiting here. Since then it has become apparent that some sort of reduction, or at least a reshuffle of U. S. forces in Europe is contemplated.

Mr. Eisenhower told a news conference he planned a meeting with Gruenther "to see exactly what his thinking is on the matter" of troop reductions. The President said "there is a streamlining coming about."

Gruenther told the United Press the "streamlining" could refer to atomic age tactics rather than manpower cuts. He indicated the size of some units may be increased and some other units eliminated.

George Montos To Make New Appeal For Life

WAYCROSS, Ga. Aug. 10 (AP) — An appeal for a new trial will be made Friday, Aug. 17 by Nick George Montos, 29, who faces death in Georgia's electric chair for the robbery-beating of an aged Georgian and his sister.

The death sentence was imposed in Bacon Superior Court July 17 by Superior Court Judge Cecil Roddenberry who will hear the appeal.

Twice on the FBI's "10 Most Wanted" list, Montos has a 25-year criminal record. He was serving a term in the Atlanta federal penitentiary when taken to Bacon County for the trial in which he was convicted of beating Fender Carter, 74, and robbing his sister, Mrs. Sanell Bland, 62.

Montos was born in Tampa, Fla., and has served time in prisons in Ohio, Virginia, Alabama, Mississippi and Illinois. He has a record of five prison breaks.

Gremillion Says New Federal Oil Offer Expected

BATON ROUGE, Aug. 10 (AP)—Atty. Gen. Jack Gremillion said today he was informed a new federal proposal was being prepared in an effort to resume drilling in disputed oil-rich offshore areas.

Gremillion met for 2½ hours in executive session with representatives of oil companies in offshore operations. On Wednesday, the companies talked over the problem with federal officials in Washington.

Last week, Interior Department officials abruptly terminated negotiations with Louisiana officials.

Offshore operations in the disputed area of the Gulf of Mexico were halted by U.S. Supreme Court order last June, until either a final decision in the dispute or federal-state agreement.

Louisiana claims its offshore boundary extends three leagues (10½ miles) into the Gulf. The federal government recognizes only three miles.

Gremillion did not reveal details of the discussion.

But the attorney general indicated the oil company representatives planned to meet with Mineral Board Chairman William G. Hells Jr., Gremillion and other state officials before the Mineral Board meeting next Thursday and Friday.

He said he assumed this proposal would be in answer to the state's reply to original federal proposals.

Recognition As Inventor Of Iron Lung Is Sought

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — (UP) —The medical profession here has dug deep into past records and is ready to support a 78-year-old semi-retired physician's claim that he's really the man behind the first iron lung.

Dr. Charles Morgan Hammond is on the sidelines looking on, while the Memphis and Shelby County Medical Society is taking the initiative to get the iron long credit for Hammond. Hammond isn't seeking recognition.

"All I want to do is to help people," the elderly doctor said.

Hammond said he has "a couple of ideas, for an upright respirator for heart patients."

Doctors here support Hammond's claim that he invented and patented the world's first iron lung.

Hammond was never able to get his invention into production because of limited finances. He failed to renew his original patent when it expired, and other respirators began appearing on the market.

Some of the modern machines use centrifugal pumps to regulate air pressure; others use the bellows principle of Hammond's first simple apparatus.

Finally Hammond's name dropped out of the picture, his original work forgotten. Until now, when younger doctors hope to get him recognition by the American Medical Association's library, the surgeon general's library and Encyclopedia Britannica.

Dr. Henry Gotten heads a committee to support Hammond's case. It was pointed out that most authorities and encyclopedias gave credit to Philip Drinker and Louis A. Shaw of the Harvard School of Public Health in Boston, who developed an iron lung in 1928.

Gotten said that records in the U. S. Patent Office verify that Hammond actually originated the machine years earlier. Records show that Hammond filed his patent on Jan. 12, 1911, and the patent—No. 1087942 — was granted Feb. 24, 1914, Gotten explained.

The patent expired 15 years later when Hammond failed to renew it. The Drinker machine was patented in 1931.

The white-haired Hammond, a graduate of the old Memphis Medical College, had hung out his doctor's shingle on a huge cotton plantation below West Memphis, Ark.

He suffered an attack of pleurisy while making calls on horseback. While bedridden, Hammond though how he might breathe easier if he could reduce the atmospheric pressure over his inflamed chest.

Hammond figured that a machine that could alternately rarefy and condense the air over the chest would, in effect, breathe for the patient, and give his lungs a rest.

Diminishing the pressure would force the lungs to take in air, increasing it would force air out, thus accomplishing the breathing process with a minimum of effort.

Hammond made preliminary sketches and got a carpenter-mechanic to work on building the first crude respirator. He recalls it was a strange-looking contraption.

The machine consisted of a casing which fit over the upper part of the body, and made comparatively air-tight by snug-fitting rubber attachments for neck, arms and legs.

A flexible tube extended from the top of the casing to a hand-operated bellows, which pumped air in and out of the enclosure.

Hammond tried the machine himself.

"I got inside and had my mechanic tighten it up," he recalls. "When he raised up on the bellows I was talking away, giving instructions, and it cut me off. It frightened the mechanic, but I knew it was doing exactly what I had expected."

In 1909 Hammond completed his first motor-driven respirator incorporating the basic principles which he later patented. Three years later the machine passed its first clinical test when a despondent man who had taken morphine and was near death, was placed in the resuscitator. Five hours later, Hammond said, the man was out of danger.

GOVERNOR TELLS STORY—Gov. J. P. Coleman, (right) of Mississippi, talks to Associated Press reporter Arthur Edson, during a pause in the Democratic platform committee hearings in Chicago, Illinois. Gov. Coleman said he doesn't agree with Adlai Stevenson's new anti-segregation stand but that Stevenson "as of this date" still appears to him to be the active candidate most acceptable to the south. Mississippi In Probe Of 1955 Financial Affairs

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—State Auditor Boyd Golding has released an audit for the 1955 fiscal year which says his office is investigating Monroe County Board of Supervisors' financial affairs.

The audit said in part:

"Our examination of expenditure accounts indicated that additional investigation will be necessary in certain instances to determine whether or not the taxpayers' money has been properly expanded.

"One particular instance concerns the records maintained by the Board of Supervisors in connection with the operation of the gravel, concrete culvert manufacturing and similar projects carried on by the Board of Supervisors."

The Aberdeen Examiner said this week one member of the board operates a gravel pit and that another makes concrete culverts.

The newspaper quoted the audit as saying there is a "need for more competitive bidding in the purchase of supplies and machinery."

BOY IS BURNED

SHREVEPORT — UP— Mike Thomas, Negro, who would have been two-years-old in November, was burned to death last night when his parent's home burned to the ground. Three other children were saved. The boy's mother was across the road at the time of the fire consoling the mother of 16-year-old Negro Louis Bennett who drowned while swimming in a pond on Wednesday. Cause of the blaze was not immediately determined.

Of the people over 65 in the U.S. there are 2,700,000 employed. There are an equal number of the same ages who are either retired or not working.

Dixie Bedding To Hold Formal Opening Saturday

The formal opening of the new addition to the Dixie Bedding and Furniture company, one of Monroe's leading furniture houses, will be held Saturday. The new addition, covering some 13,000 square feet, is located next to the present building at the corner of Washington and Ninth streets.

Established in 1910 as a small bedding company, the Dixie Bedding and Furniture company has sales of approximately 100 different lines of furniture. It employs 25 persons. The original building was located across the street from the present site.

Joseph Kusin, president of the company, said the officials "have great confidence in the growth of the Monroe trade area. Our business has grown with the growth of the area and we expect to continue with the area. It is with this thought in mind that we have constructed the new show room for the many lines of furniture, which we feature."

A number of door prizes will be awarded during the afternoon. Persons need only come in and register.

Louis Kusin, vice president, Friday invited the general public of the Monroe area, and surrounding areas, to visit the store during its formal opening "or at any time which is convenient for our many friends."

The company serves the area in both wholesale and retail trade.

Streets Topped In West Monroe

Approximately 50 percent of the planned resurfacing of route 34 and route 143 which goes through West Monroe, is completed, J. H. Drake, engineer for the state department of highways estimated Friday.

The blacktopping for route 34 begins at Bridge Street on Cypress, continues along Cypress to Natchitoches and along Natchitoches to join the four-lane pavement near Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation, he said.

Route 143 will be improved for four or five blocks on North 7th street, as far as the curb and gutter section extends, Drake said.

TEXAS RITES SET

LAKE CHARLES — UP —Funeral services were to be held in Houston, Tex., today for Ivan R. Davidson, 61, an executive of the Davidson Sash and Door Co., who died here yesterday. He came here in 1940 from Houston. Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Robert Michael, Beaumont, Tex.

Nixon, Stassen Visit White House —Separately

WASHINGTON (UP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Harold E. Stassen, the man who wants to keep him off the 1956 Republican ticket, visited the White House at the same time today but didn't run into each other.

Nixon conferred about half an hour with President Eisenhower on Suez and other "international affairs." Did they discuss politics in general and perhaps Stassen's "Dump Nixon" drive in particular?

Nixon wouldn't say. Told that Stassen also was in the White House, the vice president just smile and said he hadn't been aware of that.

Stassen did not see the President. He spent about 20 minutes with Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams. Stassen refused to tell reporters the purpose of his call. Assistant White House Press Secretary Murray Snyder refused to comment on the Stassen-Adams meeting and said he "wouldn't know" whether it was about government business or something else.

Venezuela Police Hold 5 Suspects In Murder Plot

CARACAS, Venezuela (UP)—Security authorities charged today that refugees in Puerto Rico, aided by Costa Rican authorities, hatched a plot to assassinate President Marcos Perez Jimenez here last month.

Pedro Estrada, chief of the security police, showed a news conference an impressive array of weapons and explosives which he said had been captured from the plotters. He said the arms were "supplied by Costa Rica and smuggled into this country by way of Colombia."

Estrada said the lot was hatched by ousted ex-President Romulo Betancourt in Puerto Rico, where he is living as a refugee. He implied that the United States was at least indirectly to blame for the conspiracy.

"It is strange that such an immoral act could have been instigated with impunity from Puerto Rico, which is the territory of a friendly nation — the United States," he said.

The security chief said Betancourt's accomplices in Venezuela included two multi-millionaires, a well - known physician and two newspapermen. He indicated that all five have been arrested.

Estrada said the plotters originally intended to murder Perez during a parade here July 3. That plan was dropped at the last moment, he said, apparently because the conspirators lost their nerve.

Betancourt has been pressing from Puerto Rico for "early commission of the crime," Estrada said, but so far as is known no new date had been set.

The security official said investigations are now in progress to determine what other Venezuelan residents were involved in the alleged assassination plot.

POLIO DROPS

NEW ORLEANS — UP — Only one-third as many polio cases were reported in Louisiana during the week ending July 28 as were reported the previous week. The 20 latest cases reported by the state Department of Health were 16 of the paralytic type and four non-paralytic compared to 43 and 17 respectively the previous week. The 1956 total now is 221 paralytic and 58 non - paralytic cases. Thirteen parishes contributed to the newest weekly total with Orleans having three for the largest number.
